

D&A WOMEN'S CONFERENCE
Standing against domestic violence
PROGRAM - DAY 1
TUESDAY, 15 SEPTEMBER 2015

10:30am	Registration
11:00am	Welcome to Country Norma Ingram
11:10am	Conference Opening & Welcoming Address Steve Turner: General Secretary's Report (including Industrial Report) Gender & Equity Analyst: organisational details
11:30am	Changing The Gender 'Norms' That Breed Inequality And Violence Eva Cox – Professorial Fellow, University of Technology, Sydney
12:30pm	Lunch Kindly sponsored by SCU More Generous Banking
1:30pm	Five years on- progress and challenges introducing domestic violence entitlements for workers Ludo McFerran - Manager of the national Safe at Home, Safe at Work program (2010-2013); Consultant (domestic violence at work); member of the international domestic violence and work network
2:30pm	How The D&A Won Domestic Violence Leave For Members (TBA)
3:30pm	SCU More Generous Banking Glen Warner, Business Development Manager First State Super Jenny Orr, Client Relations Manager S&S Trustee Corporation (S&S/SSS) State Super Financial Services Ozlem Bayman, Employer Relations Manager
3:45pm	Afternoon tea Kindly sponsored by State Super Financial Services
4:15pm	Panel discussion Domestic violence
5:15pm	End of day one

6:00pm	Conference Dinner 99 On York, Level 1, Bowlers Club of NSW Kindly sponsored by First State Super Women & Super presentation Claudia Clamer, Head of Marketing, First State Super
--------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

D&A WOMEN'S CONFERENCE
Standing against domestic violence
PROGRAM - DAY 2
Wednesday, 16 SEPTEMBER 2015

8:30am	Registration
8:45am	Commencement of day 2 Sue Walsh, PSA President: open day two Gender & Equity Analyst: organisational details
9:00am	Industrial Context for Domestic Violence Campaigns Mark Lennon Secretary, Unions NSW
9:30am	Domestic and Family Violence Entitlements: Strategies for Converting Rights on Paper to Rights in Practice Shabnam Hameed: Manager, Gendered Violence and Work, Gendered Violence Research Network, University of New South Wales (UNSW)
10:15am	Training modules Training session 1- Women & Super SASS/SSS Salary Sacrifice: Sharon Knightly, Member Education Specialist (STC) First State Super: Jenny Orr, Client Relationship Manager State Super Financial Services: Ozlem Bayman, Employer Relations Manager Training session 2 - Domestic Violence Alex Heron, Research Associate, Women and Work Research Group, University of Sydney Business School Training session 3 - Career Development for Courageous Women Sarah Tobin BPPsy(Honours), Learning and Development Manager, Emberin - Leaders in Diversity and Inclusion
11:45am	Morning tea Kindly sponsored by State Super Financial Services
12:00pm	How delegates can support members in the workplace Alison Dutton, Principal Solicitor, Labour Pains Legal
12:45pm	Conference close