Australian Unity survey reminder

Let the PSA know your concerns

There is still time to complete the survey.

Closing date Friday 9 June 2017.

In the past few months, members have reported to your delegates and the PSA increased workload and the need to work excessive hours. These issues might be of concern to other members.

The following survey has been designed to measure how widely felt these issues are.

The data from this survey is being collected by the PSA and you may wish to remain anonymous. All answers will be completely confidential.

Members are encouraged to complete the survey which should only take approximately 10 minutes to complete.
