

7 July 2017

Privatising Disability Services: Where to from here? PSA event at NSW Labor Conference 2017

The PSA is committed to fighting this Government's relentless privatisation agenda.

We are engaging the NSW Labor Party in conversation at its state conference through a fringe event.

The event is a discussion, with opportunities for audience members to ask questions of the panellists at the end.

Please note, attendants are required to be registered as observers to the Conference.

Privatising Disability Services: Where to from here?

Time: 12-12:50

Location: Druitt St Foyer, Town Hall

Speakers:

- Sophie Cotsis MP
- Annamaria Wood (Disability Macarthur)
- Associate Professor Damien Cahill (University of Sydney)
- Lucille McKenna (former mayor of Ashfield)

With MC, our own incredible Rachel Smoothy (PSA Delegate in ADHC)

RSVP

RSVP on our official Facebook event HERE.

Register as an observer to NSW Labor Conference HERE.

We are strong, we are united, and we will continue to fight for you.

