

UNSW Branch Annual General Meeting reminder

Next week, on Tuesday, 29 May at 1:00pm the CPSU NSW UNSW AGM will be taking place.

The location will be Mathews 103.

This is another reminder that the AGM is an important meeting where key positions within the branch are elected, information is shared from across faculties and groups, and you get the opportunity to meet other union members to strengthen our UNSW Branch community.

Please lock this time and date into your calendar and make every effort to attend, as this is a great opportunity to catch up with your union colleagues and make new contacts.

If you have any questions please contact:
