

CPSU NSW Calls for Review of Emergency Response Procedures at SCU

The Community and Public Sector Union (CPSU NSW) has called on the Vice Chancellor, Professor Adam Shoemaker, to conduct a full review of the University's emergency response procedures following last week's lockdown.

Many staff have contacted the CPSU NSW upset with the way the incident was handled, both during and afterwards.

The CPSU NSW believes it is timely to conduct a comprehensive review in collaboration with the NSW Police Force, emergency services, University stakeholders and staff.

We will provide further updates when we have received a response from SCU.
