

Reminder: Vote on enterprise agreement ends today

The TAFE Commission has tabled a new two-year enterprise agreement for Managers that matches the remuneration arrangements for administrative and support staff. Click HERE for a copy of TAFE's proposal and a letter outlining the employer's position HERE

The proposal includes:

- » 2.5 per cent pay rise from the first full pay period on or after 1 January 2020
- » 2.04 per cent pay rise from the first full pay period on or after 1 January 2021
- » 0.5 per cent increase in superannuation from the first full pay period on or after 1 January 2021
- » A reduced probationary period from 12 to 6 months
- » Enhanced leave arrangements for victims of domestic violence

And otherwise protects existing employment conditions.

Next steps

As a democratic union members are asked to vote on whether the CPSU NSW recommends or rejects the TAFE Commission offer.

If a majority of members vote to endorse the offer, we will write to staff encouraging them to vote YES when the proposal is put to a ballot of all staff.

If a members vote to reject the offer we will write to all staff encouraging them to vote NO to the proposal when it is put to a ballot of all staff.
