Salaries Award update

The PSA's fight for a pay increase for members continues despite a setback today in the Industrial Relations Commission (IRC).

The IRC today ruled that while the 2.5 per cent limit on an annual increase capped the amount public servants can earn, it did not serve as a guarantee of a salary increase of 2.5 per cent.

The PSA continues to push for a pay rise this week. The matter will proceed to a hearing on Wednesday and Thursday 24 and 25 June 2020.
