Welcome to 2021

The CPSU NSW, the Professional Staff union, would like to welcome you back to work and into 2021. We would also like to remind you that if you have any concerns or issues, please don't hesitate to call the Member Support Centre (MSC) on 1300 772 679 or contact a Delegate, whose details are below.

While we hope 2021 will be less chaotic than 2020, it is still likely to be a year of change, and so it's more important than ever to be engaged with your union. That means attending meetings when possible, keeping your Delegates up to date with any changes or things that are occurring in your workplace, keeping an eye on your emails, and talking to your colleagues about the union. If you're interested in getting even more involved, please don't hesitate to contact the Organiser Kirra Jackson at kjackson@psa.asn.au.

We expect to hear back soon in regards to all the change proposals that occurred at the end of last year, and will be keeping you up to date with developments. If you hear anything about these, please contact the MSC and keep your union updated.

Union benefits

Keep in mind there are many advantages of being in the union. First of all, we have regular training sessions, both in person and online. For more information please go to cpsunsw.org.au/training-you.

The CPSU NSW also offers Journey Cover Insurance, which covers you if you get injured going to or from work. We have a variety of other benefits including emergency ambulance cover, a free will service, and discounts for a variety of goods and services, including groceries to gym memberships. If you'd like more information, go to cpsunsw.org.au/member-services/member-benefits.

The CPSU NSW is a member-led, democratic union. Membership gives you a real voice and a vote in determining your pay and working conditions.

Your union is here for you through everything. Please don't hesitate to reach out if you've got any questions or concerns. We always put the interests of Professional Staff first.
