

Newcastle disability sector all members' meeting

We're inviting all members working in the disability sector in the Newcastle area to a members' meeting.

You will find out the latest news from across the sector and be able to participate in discussion about what's happening in your area.

It's a good opportunity to share your ideas and opinions.

Find out the latest news from across the membership. Meet up with other union members and have a discussion with your Union Officials and representatives.
