

Once you have been a member of the PSA/CPSU NSW (SPSF Group) NSW Branch for three months, you will be entitled to the benefits of Provident Fund membership. The Provident Fund provides a benefit of $4,000 to the nominated beneficiaries upon the death of a member. Payments are usually made within a few days of a completed and finalised claim.

If you do not return a form you will still be a member of the fund, and the beneficiary will be your spouse, next of kin or other appropriate person as determined by the Provident Fund Trustees.

To nominate beneficiaries fill in the form overleaf and return to: membership@psa.asn.au

All financial PSA/CPSU (SPSF Group) NSW Branch members will be covered by the Provident Fund after three months' membership. All you need do is complete this form and return it to the Association. Retired members may remain in the Fund until age 70 provided they have been continuously members of the Association or CPSU (SPSF Group) NSW Branch and then the PSA's Retired Associate Members Branch and the Fund since retirement.

If you do not return the form the Fund will normally pay the benefit to your spouse, a close relative or personal representative.

Unless you make an expressed provision for a particular case, the nomination will be revoked by your subsequent marriage or if it nominates someone who predeceases you. The form is also revoked if it nominates a former spouse where the marriage ended in your lifetime. You may also revoke a nomination by notice in writing to the Fund.

The Fund's Trustees have certain legal obligations relating to the approval of benefit payments. Because of possible legal difficulties and consequential delays in finalising benefit payments, the Trustees have decided that forms nominating charitable organisations cannot be accepted. Your beneficiary should either be a person or persons, or your own estate.

Members wishing to leave the money to a charitable institution should make provision for this in their will and nominate their own estate as the beneficiary of the Provident Fund.

An officer or employee of the PSA may not be nominated as a beneficiary unless he/she is husband, wife, father, mother, child, brother, sister, nephew or niece of the nominator.

There is no extra payment needed for membership of the Fund.
