COMMISSIONER YILMAZ

MELBOURNE, 2 FEBRUARY 2023

Application for approval of the Australian Catholic University Staff Enterprise Agreement 2022 – 2025

[1] An application has been made for approval of an enterprise agreement known as the Australian Catholic University Staff Enterprise Agreement 2022 – 2025 (the Agreement). The application was made pursuant to s.185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (the Act). It has been made by Australian Catholic University Limited T/A Australian Catholic University. The Agreement is a single enterprise agreement.

[2] The Employer has provided written undertakings. A copy of the undertakings is attached in Annexure A. I am satisfied that the undertakings will not cause financial detriment to any employee covered by the Agreement and that the undertakings will not result in substantial changes to the Agreement. The undertakings are taken to be a term of the Agreement.

[3] Subject to the undertakings referred to above, I am satisfied that each of the requirements of ss.186, 187, 188 and 190 are relevant to this application for approval and have been met. The Agreement does not cover all of the employees of the employer, however, taking into account the factors in ss.186(3) and (3A) I am satisfied that the group of employees was fairly chosen.

[4] I observe that certain provisions of the Agreement are likely to be inconsistent with the National Employment Standards (NES). However, noting clause 4 of the Undertaking, I am satisfied the more beneficial entitlements of the NES will prevail where there is an inconsistency between the Agreement and the NES.

[5] The National Tertiary Education Union and the Community and Public Sector Union being bargaining representatives for the Agreement, have given notice under s.183 of the Act that they want the Agreement to cover it. In accordance with s.201(2) I note that the Agreement covers these organisations.

[6] The Agreement is approved and in accordance with s.54, will operate from 9 February 2023. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 30 June 2025.

~~Over the immediately preceding period of twelve (12) months and in those immediately preceding six (6) months, a regular pattern of hours on an ongoing basis the average weekly hours worked equaled at least 40 per cent of the weekly hours that would have been worked by an equivalent full time staff member, or, ...~~

1.3 DEFINITIONS

This clause contains definitions of relevant terms used throughout this Agreement. Where a term is specific to a particular clause, normally the definition for that term appears in the relevant clause.

In this Agreement, the following definitions will apply:

- (a) “Academic staff member” means a staff member employed in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and whose salary is prescribed by Part A of Schedule 1.
- (b) “Act” means the Fair Work Act, 2009 (as amended).
- (c) “Afternoon shift” means any shift finishing after 7:00 pm and at or before midnight.

- (d) “Broken shift” means an ordinary shift worked in two periods of duty during the hours 7:30 am to 7:00 pm.
- (e) “Casual staff member” is a member of the University staff who is employed and paid by the hour, including a sessional staff member who is a casual staff member employed in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and whose salary is prescribed by Schedule 2.
- (f) “Chief People Officer” refers to the Chief People Officer or equivalent position or delegate.
- (g) “Consultation” means providing the individual staff member or other relevant person(s) with a bona fide opportunity to influence the decision maker. Consultation is not perfunctory advice on what is to happen, this is a common misconception. Consultation is not a joint decision-making process or even a negative or frustrating barrier to the prerogative of management to make decisions. Consultation allows the decision-making process to be informed.
- (h) “Continuous service” means service with the University which the University recognises for continuity of employment. This includes all paid service, all periods of approved leave, and breaks between fixed-term employment of up to six (6) weeks. Unpaid leave or breaks between fixed-term appointments of six (6) weeks or more will not count as service for the purpose of calculating leave and other entitlements, unless otherwise expressly stated.
- (i) “Disciplinary action” means action taken by the University to discipline a member of staff formally for unsatisfactory performance, misconduct or serious misconduct. Formal disciplinary action may only be taken by the Vice-Chancellor in line with the procedures for disciplining a staff member set out in this Agreement. Formal disciplinary action may include but is not limited to one or more of the following:
 - (i) Formal censure or counselling; and/or
 - (ii) Demotion by one or more classification levels or increments; and/or
 - (iii) Lateral transfer to another position; or,
 - (iv) Termination of employment (except in the case of misconduct).
- (j) “Gender affirmation” – sometimes also known as gender transition – is defined as the personal process or processes a trans or gender diverse person determines is right for them in order to live as their defined gender and so that society recognises this.
- (k) “Holiday” means any or all of the holidays specified in sub-clause 3.11 of this Agreement.
- (l) “Immediate family” means a spouse (as defined by the Act), de facto partner, child, child in care, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the staff member; or a child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of a spouse or de facto partner of the staff member.
- (m) “Manager” refers to the head of a functional or organisational unit as defined by the University's structures, as determined from time to time.
- (n) “Member of the Senior Executive” means the occupant (including on an acting basis) of the following positions: Vice-Chancellor and President, Provost and Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic), Chief Operating Officer and Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Administration), Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Enterprise) and Vice-President, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Ethics) and may include other positions as defined from time to time.

- (o) “Member of the Executive” means the occupants (including on an acting basis) of those positions which normally report to either the Vice-Chancellor and President or a Member of the Senior Executive, and which have staffing and supervisory responsibilities, as defined from time to time.
- (p) “Misconduct” means behaviour, attitude or a particular act of the staff member that is considered by the University to be unacceptable and that falls short of warranting termination of employment.
- (q) “Night shift” means any shift finishing after midnight and at or before 7:30 am.
- (r) “Normal service” means service with the University paid at the staff member’s ordinary rate of pay according to their contract of employment.
- (s) “Ordinary rate” means the rate payable to an academic staff member or to a Professional staff member in accordance with the rate set out in Schedule 1, Part A or B, for the staff member’s substantive appointment.
- (t) “Ordinary rate per hour” means the hourly rate payable to a Professional staff member by applying the formula: annual salary divided by the number of weeks in a calendar year divided by 35.
- (u) “Ordinary time shift” means any period of work starting at or after 7:30 am and finishing at or before 7:00 pm for which no shift allowance applies.
- (v) “Parties” means and refers to one or more of either Australian Catholic University Limited or a staff member of the University, or the Community and Public Sector Union or the National Tertiary Education Industry Union.
- (w) “Professional staff member” means a staff member who occupies a position classified in accordance with the DWM descriptors and is paid in accordance with the salaries set out in Part B of Schedule 1. A professional staff member may also be referred to as “General Staff” in some University Reports.
- (x) “Proof of illness” means a certificate from a registered health practitioner or a statutory declaration from the staff member.
- (y) “Protected staff member” means and refers to a staff member of the University who on 31 December 1990 was a staff member of Catholic College of Education Sydney Ltd, McAuley College Queensland, The Institute of Catholic Education or Signadou Dominican College of Education Ltd and on 1 January 1991 ceased to be so employed and became a staff member of Australian Catholic University.
- (z) “Public holiday” means a day declared by a State or Territory government, or a day declared in lieu of a public holiday that is observed by the University and on which the University campus(es) in that State or Territory is closed.
- (aa) A “Redundancy” occurs where the University decides that it no longer wishes the job that the staff member has been doing to be done by anyone at that campus or location, and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour. A redundancy may occur, for example, for reasons of an economic, technological, structural or similar nature, and may also occur through the transfer of a position and/or function to another campus.
- (bb) “Retrenchment” means the termination of employment of a staff member whose position has been declared by the University to be redundant.

- (cc) “Serious Misconduct” means serious misbehaviour or deliberate action(s) of a staff member which may cause a serious impediment to the carrying out of the staff member’s duties or to the staff member’s colleagues carrying out their duties; and also means misconduct of sufficient seriousness as would warrant termination of employment, and may include a succession of incidents of misconduct.
- (dd) “Significant effects” include termination of employment; major changes in the composition, operation or size of the University’s workforce or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities, promotion opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of its staff to other work or locations; and the restructuring of jobs. Provided that where this Agreement makes provision for alteration of any of these matters an alteration is deemed not to have significant effect.
- (ee) “Staff observer” means a person elected by those staff who are subject to the operation of a particular University process applying under a policy of the University.
- (ff) “Staff representative” means a person who is chosen by a staff member to be their chosen representative, who may be a union member or union official but who is not a practising barrister or solicitor.
- (gg) “Unattached” means that a staff member has formally agreed that they are no longer attached to their substantive position, which may then be filled by the organisational unit. For example, a staff member who takes a period or periods of extended parental leave without pay and/or a staff member who is seconded for a period greater than fifty-two (52) weeks are required to formally agree to become “unattached” from their substantive position/s.
- (hh) “Union” in this agreement means and refers either to the Community and Public Sector Union or the National Tertiary Education Union.
- (ii) “University” refers to Australian Catholic University Limited (A.B.N. 15 050 192 660), a Company limited by guarantee.
- (jj) “University holiday” means one or more days during the annual University closedown period on which the University is closed, and which staff are not required to take as part of their annual or long service leave.
- (kk) “Vice-Chancellor and President” refers to the Vice-Chancellor and President or delegate.
- (ll) “Week’s pay” means the ordinary time rate of pay per week for the staff member concerned.
- (mm) Any “Year of service” is deemed to be twelve (12) months paid service from the anniversary date of commencement.

1.6.2 The nominal expiry date of this Agreement will be 30 June 2025. The Agreement will thereafter continue in operation in accordance with the Fair Work Act (as amended) until it is replaced by a subsequent certified Agreement or it is terminated in accordance with the Act.

1.6.3 The parties covered by this Agreement agree to commence negotiations on a new Enterprise Agreement three (3) months prior to the nominal expiry date of this agreement.

1.7 RELATIONSHIP WITH NES, AWARDS AND CERTIFIED AGREEMENTS

1.7.1 This Agreement constitutes a closed agreement and regulates comprehensively the relationship between the University and those staff whose employment is covered by the Agreement.

1.7.2 This Agreement entirely replaces the Australian Catholic University Staff Enterprise Agreement 2017-2021, which is in operation until replaced by this Agreement.

1.7.3 This Agreement operates in conjunction with the provisions of the National Employment Standards (NES) of the Fair Work Act, 2009 (as amended).

1.7.4 This Agreement operates to the exclusion of all state and federal awards that would otherwise apply to those staff whose employment is covered by this Agreement, including but not limited to the Awards listed below and any award that may succeed any of them:

- (a) this agreement will constitute full and final settlement of all matters; and,
- (b) there will be no further claims made by either or any party until after the nominal expiry date.

1.8 INDIVIDUAL FLEXIBILITY AGREEMENTS

This clause constitutes the flexibility term referred to in section 202 of the Fair Work Act.

1.8.1 The University and a staff member covered by this Agreement may agree to make an individual flexibility agreement to vary the effect of terms of this Agreement if the arrangement deals with the following matters:

- (a) Annualisation or averaging of Salary,
- (b) Annual Leave Loading,
- (c) Purchased Annual Leave, and/or
- (d) Salary Packaging.

1.8.2 Annualisation or averaging of salary

A staff member who is employed on a continuing or fixed-term contract of employment on a fractional (part-year) basis; may apply to the University to receive an annualised salary payment over a twelve (12) month period or an averaged salary over an agreed period of less than twelve months based on the staff member's proportion of full-time employment.

An annualisation or averaging of salary arrangement will not affect payment of overtime to a Professional staff member who is eligible for overtime in accordance with clause 5.3.5 of the Agreement (Overtime).

1.8.3 Annual leave loading

A staff member may apply to receive their annual leave loading as part of their regular salary.

1.8.4 Purchased Leave

A staff member may apply to enter into an agreement with the University to purchase: ten (10) days (2 weeks) or twenty (20) days (4 weeks) additional leave in a twelve (12) month period or an agreed period of less than twelve months.

The purchased leave will be funded through the reduction in the staff member's ordinary rate of pay. To calculate the purchased leave rate of pay, the staff member's ordinary salary rate will be reduced by the number of weeks of purchased leave and then annualised at a pro-rata rate over the twelve (12) month or averaged over the agreed period.

1.8.5 Salary Packaging

A staff member may elect packaging of salary for motor vehicles, superannuation and other items that may be approved in accordance with University policy from time to time.

1.8.6 An individual flexibility agreement may be made on the following provisos:

- (a) the arrangement meets the genuine needs of the University and the staff member in relation to the matters mentioned in sub-clause 1.8.1; and
- (b) the arrangement is genuinely agreed to by the University and staff member.

1.8.7 The University must ensure that:

- (a) agreement to an individual flexibility agreement may not be a precondition of employment, reclassification or promotion;
- (b) the staff member is advised that they are entitled to have a staff representative negotiate a flexibility arrangement on their behalf, providing that the arrangement does not require the consent of a third party as specified in section 203(5) of the Fair Work Act; and
- (c) the staff member and their staff representative must have at least three (3) working days to consider the proposal.

1.8.8 The University must ensure that the terms of the individual flexibility agreement:

- (a) are about permitted matters under section 172 of the Fair Work Act;
- (b) are not unlawful terms under section 194 of the Fair Work Act; and
- (c) result in the staff member being better off overall than the staff member would be if no arrangement was made.

1.8.9 The University must ensure that the individual flexibility agreement:

- (a) is in writing; and
- (b) includes the name of University and staff member; and
- (c) is signed by the University and the staff member and if the staff member is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the staff member; and
- (d) includes details of:
 - (i) the terms of this enterprise agreement that will be varied by the arrangement; and
 - (ii) how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms; and
 - (iii) how the staff member will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of their employment as a result of the arrangement; and
 - (iv) states the day on which the arrangement commences.

1.8.10 The University must give the staff member a copy of the individual flexibility agreement within fourteen (14) days after it is agreed to and keep a copy of the arrangement as a times and wages record.

1.8.11 The University or the staff member may terminate the individual flexibility agreement:

- (a) by giving no more than twenty-eight (28) days written notice to the other party to the arrangement; or
- (b) if the University and the staff member agree in writing — at any time.

This clause relates to reaching individual agreement to change the effect of provisions in the Agreement. The right to make an agreement pursuant to the clause is in addition to, and does not in any way affect or limit flexibilities or changes that arise from applying the terms of the Agreement.

1.9 RELATIONSHIP TO UNIVERSITY POLICIES

1.9.1 University policies and procedures, as varied from time to time, apply to all staff but do not form part of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement will be taken as incorporating as a term of this Agreement any University policy, procedure or guideline referred to in it.

- 1.9.2 Disputes arising from the implementation of University policies, other than disputes regarding the interpretation, application or operation of any provision of this Agreement, will not be referred through the dispute resolution procedures of this Agreement. However, the University's policies and procedures will not be used as a mechanism to reduce any entitlements set out in this Agreement.
- 1.9.3 For the avoidance of doubt, disputes about the implementation or application of the Academic Workload Policy (including any policy, procedure or guidelines regarding the allocation of research workload to academic staff) and the Workplace Bullying Policy and Procedure may be referred through the dispute resolution procedures of this Agreement.

1.10 INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM

- 1.10.1 The University recognises the open and honest exchange of diverse views as central to its Mission within the Catholic intellectual tradition, and as a university. The parties covered by the Agreement will uphold the principle and practice of intellectual freedom in accordance with the highest ethical, professional and legal standards.
- 1.10.2 This clause sets out the University's commitment to and protection of intellectual freedom. All staff are entitled to exercise intellectual freedom in accordance with and subject to this clause 1.10 in its entirety. An exercise of intellectual freedom is not misconduct or serious misconduct under the provisions of this Agreement or under any University policy, procedure or Code of Conduct, or the contract of employment.
- 1.10.3 Intellectual freedom means:
- (a) the freedom of all staff to teach, discuss, and research and to disseminate and publish the result of their research, including the right to publish that research in outlets based on their academic judgement and interest;
 - (b) the freedom of all staff to engage in intellectual inquiry, to express their opinions and beliefs (including whether those opinions are controversial or unpopular), and to contribute to public debate, in relation to their subjects of study, research and expertise;
 - (c) the freedom of all staff to express their opinions about the University;
 - (d) the freedom of all staff to make lawful public comment on any issue in their personal capacities. However, a staff member must not represent their personal views as being those of the University;
 - (e) the freedom of all staff to participate in representative, professional or academic bodies.
- 1.10.4 In exercising intellectual freedom, staff must:
- (a) respect the rights of others to express and exchange views;
 - (b) not engage in bullying, harassment or vilification, or unlawful discrimination;
 - (c) not use lawful speech which a reasonable person would regard, in the circumstances, as (a) likely to humiliate or intimidate other persons and (b) intended to have either or both of those effects; or
 - (d) not breach a staff member's obligations:
 - (i) regarding confidentiality of:
 - A. "personal information" (within the meaning of applicable privacy legislation) of other staff, students, and/or third parties, including but not limited to personal information provided as part of a complaint or investigation process;
 - B. commercial in confidence information;
 - C. information, the disclosure of which would breach the University's obligations to third parties;

(ii) regarding health and safety;

(iii) to comply with regulatory requirements (e.g. ethics, research integrity, accreditation requirements); or

(iv) to comply with any reasonably proportionate direction given by the University requiring confidentiality to be maintained where the direction is given to protect the integrity of a formal investigation or disciplinary process. The direction may include keeping confidential the existence of such a process where this is reasonably necessary in the circumstances.

1.11 ACCESS TO AGREEMENT

A copy of this Agreement will be made available to each staff member of the University. The University will make this Agreement easily accessible on its website.

1.12 DISPUTE SETTLEMENT PROCEDURE

1.12.1 General Principles

1.12.1.1 Where any dispute arises about the application of this Agreement and/or the National Employment Standards (NES), the following dispute settlement procedure applies.

1.12.1.2 During the procedures outlined from 1.12.1.9 to 1.12.1.12 that detail internal dispute resolution, a staff member may choose to be represented by a Union or by a person of their choice, provided that person is not a practising solicitor or barrister.

1.12.1.3 The following parties who are covered by this Agreement are entitled to notify and participate in the resolution of a dispute, namely:

- (a) An eligible staff member employed by the University and/or their staff representative; and
- (b) The University; and
- (c) The Community and Public Sector Union (CPSU NSW); and
- (d) The National Tertiary Education Union (NTEU).

1.12.1.4 If there is no agreement that an issue raised under this section constitutes a dispute about the application of, or matters arising under, this Agreement or the NES, the dispute may be referred to the Fair Work Commission for a determination as to whether the dispute should be dealt with pursuant to these procedures.

1.12.1.5 The initiating party of the dispute must notify the other parties in sufficient detail about the issue/s in dispute, and the notification must specify at least one relevant proposal about how the dispute could be resolved.

1.12.1.6 Where the University is to be notified, the notification is to be lodged with the Office of the Chief People Officer (with a copy to the relevant supervisor as appropriate). Where either the NTEU and/or CPSU NSW is/are to be notified, the notification is to be lodged with the respective Union Office.

1.12.1.7 Where either the University or one or both Unions notify a dispute against a staff member, the notification is to be lodged directly with the staff member, with notification to the other parties covered by the Agreement.

- 1.12.1.8 Except where a workplace hazard exists, until the procedures described in sub-clauses 1.12.1.9 to 1.12.1.15 (as applicable) have been finalised:
- (a) the procedures will be advanced as promptly as feasible;
 - (b) work will continue in the normal manner, that is the University will not change the work, staffing or the organisation of work if such is the subject of the dispute, or take any other action likely to exacerbate the dispute;
 - (c) no industrial action will be taken by the University or the staff; and,
 - (d) the subject matter of the dispute will not be taken to the Fair Work Commission by the staff member(s) or a person representing the staff member(s) or by the University.
- 1.12.1.9 Following the notification of the dispute, in line with 1.12.1.6, the relevant parties will confer as soon as is reasonably practicable (normally within five (5) working days) in an attempt to resolve the dispute.
- 1.12.1.10 If the dispute is not resolved under 1.12.1.9 above, within five (5) working days of a request from one of the parties to the dispute, a discussion (or discussions) will be held between more senior representatives of the disputants than were involved in 1.12.1.9, (provided that a staff member may continue to represent themselves). In such circumstances, the other parties covered by this Agreement (other than staff members) will be advised of the issue in dispute and the discussion(s).
- 1.12.1.11 The parties to the dispute will ensure that the more senior representatives have sufficient authority to reach an agreement and the representatives will attempt to resolve the dispute.
- 1.12.1.12 Any agreement reached under the provisions above will be recorded in writing and implemented.
- 1.12.1.13 Should the dispute not be resolved under the provisions above, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to the Fair Work Commission for conciliation and/or arbitration. If no party refers the matter to the Fair Work Commission within twenty (20) working days following the discussion(s) at 1.12.1.10, the matter will be deemed to be discontinued.
- 1.12.1.14 In addition to any procedural requirements under the Fair Work Act, the party notifying the dispute to the Fair Work Commission will advise the Union/s and the University (in circumstances where the University is not a party to the dispute) of the referral. The right of appearance in any proceedings in the Fair Work Commission which arise from the operation of this dispute settlement procedure is subject to the determination of the Fair Work Commission.
- 1.12.1.15 The decision of the Fair Work Commission will be binding and all parties will implement the outcome.
- 1.12.1.16 A dispute which has been formally notified under the dispute settlement provisions (sub-clause 1.12) of the Australian Catholic University Staff Enterprise Agreement 2017-2021, but which has not concluded at the time at which this Agreement commences will continue to be dealt with in accordance with the relevant provisions that applied under that Agreement.

Long Service Leave is an entitlement that recognises a staff member's length of service with this University. The management of long service leave will be in accordance with the University's policy and procedures for Long Service Leave.

3.8.2 Entitlement

A staff member is entitled to long service leave after seven (7) years of service. Long Service Leave is calculated at the rate of 1.3 weeks for every year of paid service.

3.8.2.1 Notwithstanding sub-clause 3.8.2, a protected staff member, in addition to service credited to the staff member at the time of their commencement with the University, accrues Long Service Leave at the following rates in combination and not separately:

3.8.2.2 Where a staff member is ill or incapacitated while on long service leave for two (2) or more consecutive days, and the staff member produces proof of illness and/or incapacity (such evidence to be consistent with the requirements of sub-clause 3.10.4) the staff member will be placed on paid personal sick leave (where available) and re-credited the equivalent amount of long service leave.

3.8.2.3 Long service leave credits are transferable to the University from other Australian higher education institutions except where a staff member's appointment is externally funded and the grant does not provide for long service leave payment. A staff member will be entitled to have service with previous institutions recognised for the purposes of determining their long service leave entitlement provided that:

- (a) any break in service with other Australian higher education institutions does not exceed three (3) calendar months, except where a person had been made redundant, in which case the break in service will not exceed fifty-two (52) weeks;
- (b) a staff member will make any claim for recognition of service within six (6) calendar months of date of commencement.
- (c) If a staff member's service with the University is not continuous, the aggregate period of service of the staff member, including service recognised from another institution, will count as service for the purpose of determining the entitlement of the staff member to long service leave.
- (d) If service with another institution is recognised for long service leave credit, the staff member is required to complete a period of three (3) years' service with the University before being eligible to take long service leave, unless the relevant Delegated Officer/Member of the Executive/Member of the Senior Executive agrees to a lesser period in special circumstances.

3.8.3 The Planning and Taking of Long Service Leave

Professional staff

- 3.8.3.1 A staff member who is entitled to Long Service Leave will take the leave at a time or times that are mutually convenient to the University. The staff member must give the University six (6) months written notice to take the leave unless the University agrees to a shorter period of notice.
- 3.8.3.2 A staff member will normally take periods of long service leave in multiples of weeks and may take the leave on full or half pay.

3.9 PARENTAL LEAVE

3.9.1 Purpose

In line with its stated Mission and to provide family friendly work/life balance support to staff, the University provides the following arrangements for staff who require leave in association with the raising and care for children.

The University provides entitlements which are consistent with the Fair Work Act in respect of unpaid leave entitlements, the sharing of leave, and flexible leave. The University also provides generous paid leave entitlements.

The management of parental leave will be in accordance with the University policy and procedures for parental leave.

3.9.2 Eligibility for parental leave

A staff member is eligible for parental leave based on their having responsibility for the primary care of a child, whether they are a birth parent, an adopting parent or carer following permanent placement, or other person with the primary care of a child.

3.9.3 Entitlement to Leave Associated with the Birth or Adoption (or Permanent Placement) of a Child under the age of Sixteen (16)

3.9.3.1 There are three levels of entitlement to paid leave, depending upon length of paid service at the time the staff member commences leave associated with the birth or adoption (or permanent placement) of a child.

Service is calculated:

- (i) if the staff member is pregnant, at the date or expected date of birth of the child;
- (ii) at the date of the adoption or permanent placement; or

- (iii) if the leave is taken after another person has cared for the child or taken parental leave, the date the leave starts.

3.9.3.2 A fixed term or continuing member of staff is entitled to paid leave associated with the birth, adoption, permanent placement of a child in accordance with the following table.

Provision	Length of completed paid continuous service	Paid leave entitlement	Unpaid leave entitlement
A1	(i) Less than 52 weeks	The greater of eight (8) weeks or 1 week for each completed calendar month of continuous service at the staff member's ordinary salary rate	The remainder of the period up to 52 weeks
A2	(ii) 52 weeks but less than 104 weeks	12 weeks at the staff member's ordinary salary rate	40 weeks
A3	(iii) 104 or more weeks	36 weeks at the staff member's ordinary salary rate.	16 weeks

Additional leave without pay (or other forms of paid leave) may be taken that will bring the period of leave associated with the birth, adoption or permanent placement of a child, specified in sub-clause 3.9.3.1 (i) or (ii) above, to a continuous period of fifty-two (52) weeks. Paid parental leave can be taken at full pay or half pay. However, the total leave must not extend beyond the child's first birthday or one (1) year from the date of adoption or permanent placement.

'Ordinary salary rate' is the staff member's salary rate at the time of commencing parental leave. However, if the staff member's fraction has changed during the 12 weeks immediately before commencing parental leave, the staff member's ordinary salary rate will be based on their average fraction over the 104 weeks immediately before commencing parental leave.

3.9.3.3 Further unpaid parental leave

A further fifty-two (52) weeks of leave without pay is available to staff members for the care of children under school age. This must be taken immediately following paid or unpaid parental leave. The unpaid leave is renewable annually for no more than fifty-two (52) weeks at any one time provided that the total period of parental leave does not extend beyond the child's reaching school age. See clause 3.9.10 for the impact on entitlement to return to work.

3.9.3.4 Parental Leave for Casual and Sessional Staff

However, parental leave must begin no later than the date of birth or adoption (or permanent placement of the child). Where a staff member is not the birth parent, the staff member may begin paid leave as outlined in clause 3.9.5.3.

Only one staff member is entitled to the paid parental leave entitlement at any point in time (except for second parent leave under clause 3.9.5.3).

The couple's leave period commences no later than the date of birth of the child (or earlier in accordance with clause 3.9.4).

- (a) on the birth or placement of the child
 - (b) earlier than this date with agreement from the University
 - (c) later than this date, but it has to be within 52 weeks of the birth or placement of the child

Concurrent leave can be taken in separate periods. Each period will normally be for 2 weeks or more. Concurrent leave is part of the staff member's unpaid leave entitlement

A casual or sessional staff member who has been engaged on a regular and systematic basis for a period of at least twelve (12) months will also be entitled to the unpaid concurrent leave.

3.9.6 Foster Parent Leave

- (f) Study time and financial assistance will be in line with this Agreement and with the University's policy for Study Support.

4.3 INDUCTION

All staff members (including casual and sessional staff) must participate in the University's relevant induction program in a timely manner, including any additional modules (including online modules) that may be developed following the staff member's appointment.

A casual staff member, including a sessional staff member, will receive appropriate payment for participation.

4.4 INCREMENTAL PROGRESSION

4.4.1 A staff member will normally achieve progression to the next point on an incremental scale of the salaries detailed in Schedule 1, following each twelve (12) months of paid service. The staff member must be able to demonstrate that they have met the necessary performance outcomes and expected levels of achievement for incremental progression, as assessed by the staff member's supervisor following a performance review carried out in accordance with the University's procedures. An increment will not be withheld other than in accordance with the University's policy and procedures for Incremental Progression.

4.4.2 Casual professional staff and casual academic staff (but not sessional academic staff) are also eligible for incremental progression in accordance with clause 4.4.1:

- (a) if they have performed casual work for the University in 26 weeks or more of the previous 12 months; and
- (b) they are engaged or re-engaged by the University in the same or substantially similar role.

4.5 PERFORMANCE-RELATED REWARD AND RECOGNITION

The University will develop a fair, transparent, equitable and funded performance-related reward and recognition framework.

4.6 BENEFITS FOR ACADEMIC STAFF

4.6.1 Academic Promotions

Each year the University will advertise an internal Academic Promotion process for promotion to Lecturer, Senior Lecturer, Associate Professor and Professor.

The Academic Promotions process is based on the following principles:

- (i) Criteria for promotion will be published and available to all academic staff in the Academic Promotion Procedures; and,
- (ii) Assessment is based on the merit of the application made by the applicant.

Nothing in this Agreement precludes an additional public or invitational Academic Promotions round.

In the event that the application is unsuccessful, the Committee will provide the applicant with written advice that provides relevant information and guidance to inform the unsuccessful applicant where the application was considered not to have met the criteria.

The management of Academic Promotions will be in accordance with the University policy and procedures on Academic Promotions.

4.6.2 Research Awards for Academic Staff following Parental Leave

4.6.2.1 The University will provide at least three (3) research awards per annum (valued at $12,500 each) for academic staff who return to the University following authorised leave in association with the birth of an infant or adoption of an under school age child under clause 3.9.3 of this agreement. These awards will be available within two (2) years of returning from such leave to support academic staff to re-establish their research profile consistent with the strategic directions of the University.

- 4.6.2.2 The University will report annually to the ACUSCC with information about the advertising, deidentified applicant information (which work units, gender, numbers and career levels) and outcomes of the Research Awards following Parental Leave.

4.6.3 Childcare Support for Academic Staff

- 4.6.3.1 The University will provide up to $1,250 in the form of childcare support to any academic staff who, within three (3) years of returning to the University following authorised leave in association with the birth of an infant or adoption of an under school age child under clause 3.9.3 of this agreement, are presenting a paper at an international conference held either within Australia or overseas. The staff member will be eligible to receive payment once a version of the conference paper is accepted for publication in a peer reviewed output.
- 4.6.3.2 The University will report annually to the ACUSCC with information about the advertising, deidentified applicant information (which work units, gender, numbers and career levels) and outcomes of the Childcare Support scheme.

4.7 DEVELOPMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Principles

- 4.7.1 All continuing and fixed-term staff members and their nominated supervisor will participate on an annual basis in the development and performance process as established from time to time.
- 4.7.2 The development and performance process provides staff and supervisors with the opportunity to:
- (a) determine work activities and their links to work area and organisational priorities and the expected outcomes and/or level of achievement expected over the next annual review period;
 - (b) discuss knowledge, skills and competencies required and the associated professional development required to support performance excellence in the role;
 - (c) discuss the staff member's plans for taking annual, long service and other leave;
 - (d) discuss academic career pathways and work patterns including the annual workload (academic only);
 - (e) discuss, as appropriate, any personal/work issues that may impact on work performance;
 - (f) provide feedback in relation to individual performance also with reference to work area and organisational goals;
 - (g) determine if the staff member is eligible for incremental advancement;
 - (h) assess if the staff member is meeting probation requirements;
 - (i) discuss knowledge and skills development to support career and professional development;
 - (j) discuss and identify assistance and support that will be provided to improve performance where performance is assessed as requiring improvement.
- 4.7.3 The development and performance process will integrate with University arrangements in relation to probation and incremental progression.
- 4.7.4 It is expected that supervisors will provide regular feedback on performance and will deal promptly and fairly with issues relating to performance.

4.7.5 Principles for Managing Unsatisfactory Performance

This clause does not apply to staff members serving a period of probation whose employment will be managed in accordance with the University policies and procedures relating to probationary employment.

During any meetings to discuss possible unsatisfactory performance, a staff member may choose to be assisted by a person of their choice, including a staff representative, but not a practising solicitor or barrister.

Nothing in this clause prevents the relevant Member of the Executive or the Vice-Chancellor and President from referring a question of possible unsatisfactory performance to a supervisor or Member of the Executive for appropriate action.

4.8 MANAGING UNSATISFACTORY STAFF PERFORMANCE

4.8.1 Initial Feedback Mechanisms

4.8.1.1 A supervisor should normally address issues of possible unsatisfactory performance promptly as part of the performance review processes and provide ongoing feedback to the staff member; including notification to the staff member that this consideration is within the process of managing unsatisfactory performance.

4.8.1.2 If a supervisor concludes that the performance of a staff member does not meet the required standard, the supervisor will address the issue(s) promptly and, in consultation with the staff member, will develop and implement specific strategies to address any concerns related to the staff member's performance.

4.8.1.3 To assist the staff member to address any concerns related to the staff member's performance, the supervisor will:

- (i) outline to the staff member the required standard of work and the nature of the improvement(s) required and the time within which reasonable improvement is expected;
- (ii) identify any required skill development or training to be provided, and a staff member will not unreasonably refuse to undertake skill development and/or training;
- (iii) outline the possible consequences if the staff member's performance does not improve;
- (iv) provide the staff member with a copy of the advice (first written advice) concerning the performance improvement required; and
- (v) determine a timeline to review whether the performance is improved or whether the matter should be pursued further.

4.8.2 Follow-up Feedback Mechanisms

4.8.2.1 If, following the steps taken under sub-clause 4.8.1.3, the staff member continues to perform below the required standards expected, and does not meet the required standard of work, the supervisor will provide the staff member with a second written advice of the need for the staff member's performance to improve, the time line for the next review and that at the conclusion of the specified period, a review of the staff member's performance will occur.

4.8.2.2 Where applicable, a copy of the second written advice will also be provided to the relevant Member of the Executive responsible for the work unit in which the staff member works.

4.8.2.3 If, at the end of the specified review period, the staff member's performance has improved to the required standard, the supervisor will provide the staff member with written confirmation of the staff member's improvement and expectations for future performance as may be specified in the staff member's performance review and plan. Where applicable a copy of the advice will also be provided to the Member of the Executive responsible for the work unit in which the staff member works.

4.8.2.4 If, at the end of the specified review period, the staff member's performance has not improved to the required standard, the supervisor may implement the Unsatisfactory Performance Procedures as set out in 4.8.3 or take other appropriate action.

4.8.3 Unsatisfactory Performance Procedures

4.8.3.1 If, at the end of the specified review period referred to in sub-clause 4.8.2.1 the staff member's performance has not improved to the required standard, the supervisor will submit a report to this effect to relevant Member of the Executive for consideration and, at the same time, provide a copy to the staff member.

4.8.3.2 The staff member will be advised that within ten (10) working days of receiving a copy of the report, the staff member must submit to the Member of the Executive a written response to the report. The staff member will also be advised in writing that if they fail to submit a response, the Vice-Chancellor and President may determine that the staff member's performance has been unsatisfactory, and take disciplinary action as defined in sub-clause 1.3 (i) of this Agreement.

4.8.3.3 The Member of the Executive will consider the report and the response provided by the staff member and consult with the supervisor and the Chief People Officer (or nominee) as appropriate.

4.8.3.4 Following consideration in clause 4.8.3.3 the relevant Member of the Executive will provide the Member of the Senior Executive with a copy of the report and the written response. The Member of the Senior Executive will need to be satisfied that:

- (a) appropriate steps have been taken to bring the unsatisfactory nature of performance to the staff member's attention;
- (b) an adequate opportunity to respond was given;
- (c) any response was taken into account; and,
- (d) a reasonable opportunity has been afforded to remedy the performance problem.

4.8.3.5 The relevant Member of the Senior Executive may then decide to:

- (a) take no further action and advise the staff member accordingly;
- (b) refer the matter back to the Member of the Executive or the supervisor to ensure that the steps referred to in clause 4.8.2.1 are complied with in substance and in a manner appropriate to the circumstances; or,
- (c) recommend to the Vice-Chancellor and President that disciplinary action be taken.

4.8.3.6 Before deciding to take disciplinary action, the Vice-Chancellor and President will have regard to the supervisor's report and the response from the staff member (if received). The Vice-Chancellor and President's decision will be made on the basis of information provided to the staff member and their response.

4.8.3.7 In circumstances where the Vice-Chancellor and President decides to terminate the staff member's employment for cause based on unsatisfactory performance, the Vice-Chancellor and President will provide the staff member with the opportunity to put any matter to them directly and the staff member will have five (5) working days to do so.

4.8.3.8 The Vice-Chancellor will advise the staff member of their decision, and of the operative date of any disciplinary action to be taken. In circumstances where the Vice-Chancellor decides to terminate the staff member's employment the following notice (or payment in lieu thereof) will be provided in accordance with this clause. The staff member will receive the minimum period of notice, or payment in lieu of notice, on their last day of duty as outlined below:

Period of Continuous Service at the end of the day the notice is given	Period of Notice
less than 3 years	At least 2 weeks
3 years but less than 5 years	At least 3 weeks
5 years or over	At least 4 weeks
Over 45 years old and greater than 2 years continuous service	Plus one additional week to the above

- 4.8.3.9 If, following receipt of advice from the Vice-Chancellor and President, a staff member believes that fair and proper procedures have not been followed, the staff member may seek to have the process reviewed by a member of the Panel of Independent Chairs.
- 4.8.3.10 The member of the Panel (Reviewer) will review the steps taken during the process of applying this clause in order to establish whether the staff member was afforded procedural fairness throughout that application. The Reviewer will submit a report on the findings of this review, including recommendations if appropriate, to the Vice-Chancellor and President.
- 4.8.3.11 Subject to the outcome of any review by the Reviewer, if formal disciplinary action is to be taken, the Vice-Chancellor and President will advise the staff member in writing of the decision and the date of effect of the decision.
- 4.8.3.12 Nothing in this clause will be construed as excluding the jurisdiction of any external court or tribunal which, but for this sub-clause, would be competent to deal with the matter.

SECTION 5 WORKING ARRANGEMENTS

5.1 WORK-LIFE ARRANGEMENTS

All academic and professional staff are entitled to a Flexible Working Arrangement. The nature of that arrangement may include:

- (a) Changing hours of work
- (b) Working remotely
- (c) Job share
- (d) Changing patterns of work

The nature of a staff member's Flexible Working Arrangement will be negotiated in accordance with the principles and procedures outlined below.

5.1.1 Principles Guiding Flexible Work Arrangements

5.1.1.1 In evaluating a staff member's request for Flexible Working Arrangement, the following principles will apply:

- (a) The recognition that while some tasks need to be performed on-campus, the COVID-19 pandemic has shown that most staff can productively perform their roles remotely. This includes roles that are client-facing;
- (b) Attendance on campus by staff contributes to the development of vibrant campus environments, along with similar levels of attendance by students, and use of the campuses by community members;
- (c) Where a staff member works in a team environment or with shared responsibilities, as far as practicable the supervisor will take into account the needs of the whole team in considering Flexible Working Arrangements requests; and
- (d) A staff member needs to be reasonable in what Flexible Working Arrangement they request, and a supervisor needs to be reasonable in considering the request.

5.1.1.2 In considering any application for flexible working arrangements, the University will take into account all relevant factors including:

- (a) The nature of the applicant's role and whether aspects of their duties are suitable for the requested arrangements (including whether some aspects of the role can be performed on particular days of the week or month, or in weeks of the year);
- (b) Any service delivery and student or client-facing aspects of the role, and whether these may be completed face-to-face or remotely;
- (c) Other flexible working arrangements in the staff member's team;
- (d) Any reasonable adjustments that may be made to accommodate the request;
- (e) Whether the role has been performed under similar arrangements in the past; and
- (f) Any caring responsibility, disability, age, and/or whether the staff member or a member of their household or immediate family is experiencing family, domestic or intimate partner violence.

No single factor will be determinative and all relevant factors will be weighed together.

5.1.2 Applications for Flexible Working Arrangements

5.1.2.1 A request for a Flexible Working Arrangement must be lodged in writing through appropriate channels. The request must set out the details of the change sought, including the duration (up to 12 months), and an outline of how the Flexible Working Arrangement aligns with the principles and factors outlined in clause 5.1.1.

- (a) Where a staff member works as part of a team or shares responsibilities with other staff, the team may meet and co-design a reasonable set of Flexible Working Arrangements amongst themselves for consideration by the supervisor. The University is not obliged to agree to these Flexible Working Arrangements.

- (b) Where there are more than one Flexible Working Arrangement requests in a team, the supervisor will, as far as practicable, consider the Flexible Working Arrangement requests together.
- (c) The role of the supervisor is not to evaluate whether a staff member is entitled to Flexible Working Arrangement, but rather to apply the principles outlined in 5.1.1 when considering the request. The supervisor may consult with their Head of School and/or Director to ensure that this clause is being complied with and applied equitably across work areas.
- (d) The University will provide a written response to the request within twenty-one (21) days advising whether the request is granted or refused;
- (e) The University may only refuse a request on reasonable grounds where it would not be reasonably practicable to accommodate the request;
- (f) If the request is refused, the response will include details of the reasons for the refusal;
- (g) Following a refusal, the staff member and the supervisor will propose and discuss reasonable alternative Flexible Working Arrangement. Where an alternative arrangement is agreed to, it will be implemented.

5.1.2.2 Flexible working arrangements will be reviewed annually. The staff member and University can agree to change a flexible working arrangement at any time. A staff member may also request ad hoc or short-term changes to work times or locations. The University will only refuse such a request where it is not reasonably practicable to accommodate the request.

5.1.3 Staff location and availability

5.1.3.1 The parties recognise that the University has important obligations and liabilities under work health and safety and workers' compensation legislation, and therefore has a legitimate interest in knowing where any particular staff member is working on any particular day.

5.1.3.2 Where:

- (i) a staff member's normal place of work is on campus; or,
- (ii) a staff member is working pursuant to a flexible working arrangement that means that they will be working from another location;

and they propose to work from a different location on a particular day, the staff member will submit a notification through the approved HR system. The staff member may be required to submit a declaration regarding the safety of the proposed alternative workplace.

5.1.4 Right to Disconnect

5.1.4.1. The University will implement measures to ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable, that a staff member is not contacted by phone or electronic communication except in the circumstances outlined in 5.1.4.2 (a) - (c) below where it is stated or implied that a response or consideration is required prior to the time at which the staff member will next be working their normal hours. Such measures will include informing managers, supervisors, and students that they cannot expect responses to communications outside of working hours, subject to the exceptions outlined below.

5.1.4.2. A staff member will not be required or expected to respond to such contact outside of the circumstances described in (a) - (c) below. Those circumstances are:

- (a) During a staff member's regular working hours;
- (b) Pursuant to a relevant clause of this Agreement (for example, notification of an unplanned absence, during authorised overtime, call back to work, notification of rostering changes, or paid on-call arrangements); or
- (c) In the case of a genuine emergency, such as where there is a serious immediate risk to students or major University property.

For the purposes of this clause only, an academic staff member's regular working hours are deemed to be 8am-6pm, or where they are scheduled to perform work outside of these hours (such as the delivery or coordination of a timetabled class) their regular working hours will include those hours they are scheduled to work.

- 5.1.4.3 A staff member will not be prejudiced in their employment on the basis that they have not responded to communications outside of their normal working hours unless that communication falls into one of the exceptions in 5.1.4.2 above.

5.1.5 Changing Patterns of Work Including Reversion to Part-Time Work

A full-time staff member may apply to work part-time on a temporary or ongoing basis according to the staff member's contract of employment and the needs of the University. There is no limit to the fraction of full-time workload that a part-time staff member may work, although this is at the discretion of the University.

5.2 WORKING ARRANGEMENTS – ACADEMIC STAFF

- 5.2.1 Academic staff may apply for a flexible work arrangement in accordance with clause 5.1.1 above

5.2.2 Annual Academic Workloads

- 5.2.2.1 Academic staff will be consulted on workload which will be allocated as equitably, and transparently as possible, aimed at assuring fairness in general and gender equity in particular. The workload of academic staff will be allocated on an individual basis, consistent with the Academic Workload Policy that recognises the requirements to undertake minimum teaching and other academic activities – including research, scholarship, and leadership/service – consistent with and relative to the staff member's Academic Career Pathway. Academic workload will be recorded in the Academic Workload Planning system (or its successor or equivalent) and transparently reported annually by the Provost's Office to the Staff Consultative Committee.

- 5.2.2.2 The basis for calculation of the annualised academic workload is thirty-five (35) hours per week times the number of weeks in a year. In any calendar year an academic staff member is entitled to the following to achieve work-life flexibility and to support the staff member's health and wellbeing through taking a break from work to recuperate:

- Annual Leave: 20 days (140 hours)
- 10 public holidays: 10 days (70 hours)
- University holidays: 3 days (21 hours).

This results in a rounded figure of 1,590 hours per full time academic staff member per annum (pro-rata for part-time staff) of academic staff availability to be managed through work allocation in accordance with this clause and the Academic Workload Policy, taking into account a staff member's planned leave.

- 5.2.2.3 The National Head of School/Institute Director or delegate will, in consultation with the staff member, assign and record workloads (including changes to workload), in accordance with the University's Academic Workload Policy before the work starts or as soon as practicable thereafter. Unless there are exceptional circumstances, a workload allocation will not be adjusted after the work is completed and if this kind of adjustment occurs, it will be documented.

When assigning workloads, supervisors will take reasonable steps to assure gender equity, not only in terms of the amount of work assigned but also the types of work assigned.

Workloads will be assigned in accordance with the University's Academic Workload Policy. It is an expectation that a competent staff member can perform their allocated duties in 1,590 hours per year.

In the University's Academic Workload Policy, time allocated for each type of work activity will apply to all academic staff members and will reasonably reflect the time, on average, that a competent staff member requires to complete that activity.

Academic staff members must work with their nominated supervisor to achieve a full annual workload. All workload allocations for continuing and fixed-term Academic staff will be recorded in the Academic Workload Planning System (or its successor or equivalent).

Academic workload allocations are transparent (having regard to privacy requirements) and include full disclosure of academic workloads by staff to staff within the work unit and broader National School (system permitting), the Executive Dean, the Provost and relevant Deputy Vice-Chancellors, members of the Workload Advisory Committee, and Human Resources to support reporting requirements and decision making by the University. System permitting, workload allocations for continuing and fixed-term academic staff will be reported annually to the ACUSCC in a manner that allows comparison across staff groupings in terms of amount and type of work (e.g., by gender, ACP, academic level, organisational units, and campus).

5.2.2 Broad Definition of Academic Work

- other outputs and activities that support contemporary approaches to teaching and learning, or research training.

5.2.3.4 Leadership and Service may include:

- mandatory and approved professional learning related to leadership and service activities;
- undertaking a role with formal staff supervision including of continuing, fixed-term, sessional and casual teaching and/or research staff and professional staff in a University-assigned role (e.g., National Head of School, Associate Dean, Deputy Dean, State Head

5.2.4 Academic Career Pathways

5.2.4.1 ACU has created flexible academic roles through the introduction of the five Academic Career Pathways:

1. Teaching and Research;
2. Teaching-focussed;
3. Research-focussed;
4. Research-only; and
5. Leadership and Service.

5.2.4.2 The Academic Career Pathway for the staff member is a University decision which is based on the contribution, participation, outcomes and outputs of an individual staff member as measured by the minimum requirements and quality standards identified by the University.

5.2.4.3 An academic staff member's career pathway may vary from time to time based on individual and/or University requirements.

5.2.4.4 An academic staff member may request a variation of their Academic Career Pathway and any change can only occur through discussion with, and with the written agreement of, the University. This would normally occur during the development and performance process.

5.2.4.5 Nothing in this Agreement prevents a staff member from being required to change their Academic Career Pathway. This would normally be dealt with during the development and performance process and must be based on performance during a period of no less than 12 months.

5.2.4.6 A variation to an Academic Career Pathway can only be approved by a Member of the Executive. The Member of the Executive will be reasonable in considering any request to change to a staff member's Academic Career Pathway.

5.2.4.7 The following summarises the various academic career pathways available to the University and its staff; including the minimum / maximum (as required) teaching, research, scholarship, and leadership and service activities. Each career pathway has a continuum of academic activity to reach full participation, and allocation of an annual workload.

All academic staff will be allocated 10% (i.e., 159 hours for a full-time academic) of their workload for service (see clause 5.2.3.4).

(i) Teaching and Research Academic Career Pathway

A Teaching and Research Academic undertakes teaching, research, scholarship, and leadership and service. In the workload allocation for teaching, the number of contact hours associated with face-to-face teaching (or equivalent) will not exceed three hundred and thirty-six (336) hours.

Teaching and research staff will be allocated a minimum of 10% of their total workload allocation for scholarship activity (defined in clause 5.2.3.3)

Teaching and research staff can reasonably expect to be allocated workload to undertake research activity, subject to adequate performance. Unless there are exceptional circumstances, this research workload will not be less than 10% of total workload allocation (minimum) and not more than 60% of total workload allocation (maximum).

Staff on this pathway may be allocated additional workload to complete a specific scholarship of teaching and learning project(s) (see activities listed under clause 5.2.3.3), with objectives directly relevant to strategic priorities. Staff applications to undertake these projects will be assessed on (i) project quality and feasibility and (ii) the applicant's track record (relative to opportunity) in scholarship activity. Data for this assessment will be drawn from university systems (e.g., Orion and Staff Connect [Progress Reports]) or their successors or equivalents). Unless there are exceptional circumstances, the total workload for research and scholarship will not exceed 70% of total workload.

(ii) Teaching-focussed Academic Career Pathway

A Teaching-focussed Academic undertakes teaching, scholarship activity, and leadership and service and may undertake some research. In the workload allocation associated with face-to-face (or equivalent) teaching, the number of contact hours will not exceed four hundred and eighty (480) hours.

Teaching-focused staff will be allocated a minimum of 10% of their total workload allocation for scholarship activity (defined in clause 5.2.3.3). Staff on this pathway may be allocated additional workload to complete a specific scholarship of teaching and learning project(s), with objectives directly relevant to strategic priorities. Staff applications to undertake these projects will be assessed on (i) project quality and feasibility and (ii) the applicant's track record (relative to opportunity) in scholarship activity. Data for this assessment will be drawn from university systems (e.g., Orion and Staff Connect [Progress Reports]) or their successors or equivalents).

Teaching-focussed academics may be allocated workload to undertake research (defined in clause 5.2.3.2).

(iii) Research-focussed Academic Career Pathway

A Research-focussed Academic undertakes research, teaching, and leadership and service. Research-focussed staff will be allocated a minimum of 10% of their total workload allocation for research (defined in clause 5.2.3.2). Research-focussed staff can reasonably expect to be allocated workload to undertake additional research activity, subject to adequate performance. Unless there are exceptional circumstances, this additional research workload will not be less than 50% of total workload allocation, for a total minimum research workload allocation of 60% of total workload. In the workload allocation associated with face-to-face (or equivalent) teaching, the number of contact hours will not exceed one hundred and sixty-eight (168) hours.

(iv) Research-Only Academic Career Pathway

A Research-only Academic undertakes research and leadership and service, and may undertake some teaching. Research-only staff will be allocated a minimum of 10% of their total workload allocation to conduct research. Research-only staff can reasonably expect to be allocated workload to undertake additional research activity (see activities listed in clause 5.2.3.2), subject to adequate performance. Unless there are exceptional circumstances, this additional research workload will not be less than 70% of total workload allocation, for a total minimum research workload allocation of 80% of total workload. In the workload allocation associated with any face-to-face (or equivalent) teaching, the number of contact hours will not exceed ninety-six (96) hours.

(v) Leadership and Service Academic Career Pathway

A Leadership and Service Academic undertakes leadership and service and will maintain discipline currency. They will lead teaching, research, or scholarship activity and will usually teach or conduct research themselves. In the workload allocation for teaching, the number of contact hours associated with face-to-face (or equivalent) teaching will not exceed three hundred and thirty-six (336) hours. Leadership and service staff will be allocated a minimum of 5% of their total workload allocation to scholarship activity (see activities listed in clause 5.2.3.3).

Staff on this pathway may be allocated additional workload to complete a specific scholarship of teaching and learning project(s), with objectives directly relevant to strategic priorities. Staff applications to undertake these projects will be assessed on (i) project quality and feasibility and (ii) the applicant's track record (relative to opportunity) in scholarship activity (see activities in clause 5.2.3.3). Data for this assessment will be drawn from university systems (e.g., Orion and Staff Connect [Progress Reports] or their successors or equivalents). Leadership and service-focussed academics may be allocated additional workload to undertake research (see activities listed in clause 5.2.3.2).

5.2.5 Management of Academic Workload

5.2.5.1 Academic workload will be managed in accordance with the Academic Workload Policy.

5.2.5.2 To ensure a staff member achieves the full allocation of an annual workload of 1590 hours, the operation of the continuum allows for flexibility with regard to the proportions of academic activities undertaken within all Career Pathways. To the extent that a staff member, through the normal allocation of workload in their relevant Career Pathway cannot achieve the required 1590 hours, the continuum is read flexibly to enable the staff member to achieve a full workload allocation.

5.2.5.3 Research workload allocation for all Academic Career Pathways will be determined in accordance with the ACU Academic Workload Policy supported by the Faculty Research Workload Review Panel (or its successor or equivalent).

5.2.5.4 Any evaluation process used to determine an aspect of a staff member's workload allocation will:

- Treat staff with dignity and support them to pursue knowledge and the common good, grounded in the principles of ACU's Mission;

Payment for each programmed engagement of sessional employment will be in accordance with the rates set out in Schedule 2 of this Agreement.

6.6 REQUIREMENT TO STATE TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT

- 6.6.1 Upon engagement, the University will provide to the staff member an instrument of appointment which stipulates the type of employment and informs the staff member of the terms of engagement at the time of the appointment in relation to:

- (i) for staff other than casuals, the classification level and salary of the staff member on commencement of the employment, and the hours or the fraction of full-time hours to be worked;
- (ii) for a fixed-term staff member, the term of the employment and the circumstance(s) by reference to which the use of fixed-term contract for the type of employment has been decided for that employment;

- (iii) for casuals including sessionals, the duties required, the number of hours required, the rate of pay for each class of duty required and a statement that any additional duties required during the term will be paid for; and
- (iv) for any staff member subject to probationary employment, the length and terms of the probation.

6.6.2 The instrument of appointment will also specify the other main conditions of employment including the identity of the University, and the documentary, or other recorded sources from which such conditions derive, and the duties and reporting relationships to apply upon appointment.

6.7 EMPLOYMENT CATEGORIES

6.7.1 Continuing employment means employment with no specified end date and is employment other than fixed-term, casual or sessional. Continuing employment may be on a full-time, fractional or part-time basis.

6.7.1.1 Continuing employment may contain a reasonable probationary period that is directly related to the nature of the work to be carried out under the contract.

6.7.1.2 Continuing employment is terminable by the resignation or retirement of the staff member, by the abandonment of employment by the staff member, by the position being declared redundant where the staff member is not redeployed, by the staff member's employment being otherwise terminated by the University in accordance with the relevant provisions of this Agreement, or by the death of a staff member.

6.7.2 Fixed-term employment means employment for a specified term or ascertainable period, for which the instrument of engagement will specify the starting and finishing dates of that employment (or instead of a finishing date, will specify the circumstance(s) or contingency relating to a specific task or project), upon the occurrence of which the term of the employment will expire. Fixed-term employment may be on a full-time, fractional or part-time basis.

6.7.2.1 Fixed-term employment may contain a reasonable probationary period that is directly related to the nature of the work to be carried out under the contract.

6.7.2.2 Fixed-term employment is terminable by the resignation or retirement of the staff member, during a probationary period, by the abandonment of employment by the staff member or by the staff member's death; or the staff member's employment being terminated by the University in accordance with the relevant provisions of this Agreement for unsatisfactory performance, medical separation, serious or willful misconduct, or where the position is declared redundant. In any of these circumstances the staff member is entitled to the same payments or notice period as a continuing staff member except in the case of redundancy where the staff member will be paid out the balance of the contract or receive six (6) months' salary whichever is the greater.

6.7.2.3 The use of fixed-term employment is limited to the employment of a staff member engaged on work activity that comes within the description of one or more of the following circumstances:

- (i) Specific task or project means a definable work activity which has a starting time and which is expected to be completed within an anticipated timeframe. Without limiting the generality of that circumstance, it will also include a period of employment provided for from identifiable funding external to the University, not being funding that is part of an operating grant from government or funding comprised of payments of fees made by or on behalf of students.
- (ii) Research means work activity by a person engaged on research only functions for a contract period not exceeding five (5) years. Such a contract may be on a continuing contingent basis which is contingent upon the provision of funding.

- (iii) Replacement staff member means a staff member who is:
 - (a) undertaking work activity by replacing a staff member for a definable period for which the replaced staff member is either on authorised leave of absence or is temporarily seconded away from their usual work area; or
 - (b) performing the duties of:
 - (i) a vacant position for which the University has made a definite decision to fill and has commenced recruitment action; or
 - (ii) a position the normal occupant of which is performing higher duties pending the outcome of recruitment action initiated by the University and in progress for that vacant higher duties position; until a staff member is engaged for the vacant position or vacant higher duties position as applicable.

- (iv) Recent professional practice required
Where a curriculum in professional or vocational education requires that work be undertaken by a person to be engaged who has recent practical or commercial experience, such a person may be engaged for a fixed period not exceeding two (2) years.
- (v) Pre-retirement contract
Where a staff member declares that it is their intention to retire, a fixed-term contract expiring on or around the relevant retirement date may be adopted as the appropriate employment type for a period of up to (5) five years.
- (vi) Fixed-term contract employment subsidiary to studentship
Where a person is enrolled as a student, employment under a fixed-term contract may be adopted as the appropriate type of employment for work activity, not within the description of another circumstance in the preceding paragraphs of this clause, that is work within the student's academic unit or an associated research unit of that academic unit and is work generally related to a degree course that the student is undertaking within the academic unit, provided that:
 - (a) such fixed-term contract employment will be for a period that does not extend beyond, or that expires at the end of, the academic year in which the person ceases to be a student, including any period that the person is not enrolled as a student but is still completing postgraduate work or is awaiting results; and
 - (b) an offer of fixed-term employment under this paragraph must not be made on the condition that the person offered the employment undertake the studentship.
- (vii) New Organisational Unit
A fixed-term contract may be offered in the case of employment in a new organisational area about which there is uncertainty as to whether it will continue or to perform specific commencement activities, for up to two (2) years from the establishment of any such area. Where there continues to be an uncertainty as to whether the organisational area will continue, a further fixed-term contract of a maximum of twelve (12) months may be offered to the incumbent subsequent to the initial contract.
- (viii) Disbanded Organisational Unit
Where an organisational work unit has been the subject of a decision by the University to discontinue that work within three (3) years, fixed-term contract employment may be offered to work in that work unit.
- (ix) Post-retirement contract.
A staff member who has retired from the University or another organisation and who is eligible to access their retirement benefit from their relevant superannuation fund may be engaged for a limited period of time. Such employment contracts will be used primarily for the purpose of teaching and research degree supervision.

(x) Other Category of Fixed-Term Employment

Where the University considers that additional non-continuing staffing resources are required to meet changing operational needs in circumstances where the provisions of sub-clause 6.7.2.3 do not meet or comply with the University's requirements; the University will consult with the Union/s and only by mutual agreement by the parties, the University can offer additional fixed-term employment rather than casual and/or sessional engagements.

6.7.2.4 Incidences of fixed-term contract of employment

Without derogating from any entitlement under the staff member's contract or under a provision of this Agreement applicable to the staff member on account of the staff member's continuous service, a fixed-term contract staff member is entitled to:

(a) Incremental advancement

A fixed-term staff member who has a period of continuous service in a classification must be entitled to progress through that structure in the same way as an staff member engaged as a continuing staff member (who may be full-time or part-time) in the same or similar classification.

(b) Further employment

If the University decides to retain the same position or a substantially similar position for a further term, employment in the position will be offered to the incumbent provided that the incumbent:

- (i) Has at least twelve (12) months continuous service in the same or substantially similar position at the contract end date; and
- (ii) Was appointed to the position by the University following a merit based selection process; and
- (iii) Has performed satisfactorily in the role.

(c) Notice of cessation or revocation of employment upon expiry of the contract

The University will provide to a fixed-term staff member written notice of the University's intention to renew, or not to renew, employment with the University upon the expiry of the contract. Such notice will be:

Period of Continuous Service at the end of the day notice is given	Period of Notice
less than 3 years	At least 2 weeks
3 years but less than 5 years	At least 3 weeks
5 years or over	At least 4 weeks
Over 45 years old and greater than 2 years continuous service	Plus one additional week to the above
In circumstances where it is not possible to give the preceding notice due to external funding arrangement and this is advised in writing to the staff member	Earliest practicable date

- (i) Where, because of circumstances relating to the provision of specific funding to support employment external to the University and beyond its control, the University is not reasonably able to give the notice required by this sub-clause, it will be sufficient compliance with this clause if the University:
 - (a) advises those circumstances to the staff member in writing by the latest time at which the notice would otherwise be required to be given; and
 - (b) gives notice to the staff member at the earliest practicable date thereafter.
- (ii) In circumstances where a staff member who is employed on a fixed-term contract of employment is absent on parental leave at the time when notice of intention to renew or not renew employment with the University is due to be given before the expiry of the contract; the staff member will be offered further employment if the work activity is to continue, except where there could not have been a reasonable expectation of further work (e.g. if the staff member was employed for a specific project or as a replacement staffmember).

6.7.2.5 Severance pay

A fixed-term staff member whose contract of employment is not renewed in circumstances where the staff member seeks to continue the employment will be entitled to a severance payment or retrenchment benefit payment howsoever called in accordance with the following in the following circumstances:

- (i) the staff member is employed on a second or subsequent fixed-term contract to do work required for the circumstances described in sub clause 6.7.2.3 (i) (Specific Task) or 6.7.2.3 (ii) (Research) and the same or substantially similar duties are no longer required by the University; or
- (ii) the staff member is employed on a fixed-term contract to do work required for the circumstances described in clause 6.7.2.3 (i) or 6.7.2.3 (ii) and the duties of the kind performed in relation to work continue to be required but another person has been appointed, or is to be appointed, to the same or substantially similar duties.

Severance Payments for eligible fixed-term staff

Period of continuous paid service on termination	Severance payments
At least 1 year but less than 2 years	4 weeks' salary
At least 2 years but less than 3 years	6 weeks' salary
At least 3 years but less than 4 years	7 weeks' salary
At least 4 years but less than 5 years	8 weeks' salary
At least 5 years but less than 6 years	10 weeks' salary
At least 6 years but less than 7 years	11 weeks' salary
At least 7 years but less than 8 years	13 weeks' salary
At least 8 years but less than 9 years	14 weeks' salary
At least 9 years but less than 10 years	16 weeks' salary
At least 10 years and over	12 weeks' salary

6.7.2.6 Where the University advises a staff member in writing that further employment may be offered within six (6) weeks of the expiry of a period of fixed-term employment, then the University may defer payment of severance benefits for a maximum period of four (4) weeks from the expiry of the period of fixed-term employment.

6.7.2.7 If the University offers acceptable alternative employment for a staff member who is otherwise entitled to severance payment, then that staff member is not entitled to severance payment.

6.7.2.8 Entitlements and calculation of continuous service

A fixed-term staff member will be entitled to the same terms and conditions in respect to the same matters as would apply to a continuing staff member engaged in an equivalent classification and working an equivalent proportion of normal weekly ordinary hours for the classification.

6.7.2.9 For the purpose of this agreement, breaks between fixed-term appointments of up to two (2) times per year and of up to six weeks in total will not constitute breaks in continuous service.

6.7.2.10 Periods of approved unpaid leave will not count for service, but will not constitute breaks in service for the purposes of this clause.

6.7.2.11 Right of application

No staff member employed on a fixed-term contract (other than a staff member employed on a pre-retirement contract within the meaning of 6.7.2.3 (v)) will be prevented from making application to the University, nor having their application for employment within the terms of this Agreement considered, solely because the staff member has previously been employed on a fixed-term contract by the University.

6.7.2.12 Conversion from Fixed-term to Continuing Employment

6.7.2.13 If the University decides that a fixed-term position is to be made continuing and a staff member has satisfactorily completed at least three (3) years of continuous service in that position on two or more fixed-term appointments, the staff member will be offered appointment to the continuing position subject to the staff member:

- (i) having been originally appointed following open competitive selection;
- (ii) meeting the criteria for appointment to the University for the level of the position; and
- (iii) being assessed as performing the duties of the position to a satisfactory standard following performance reviews under the appropriate process provided for in this Agreement.

6.7.2.14 If a staff member has satisfactorily completed five (5) or more years of continuous service on fixed-term contract(s) in the same or similar position, not being funded from an identifiable funding source external to the University (that is, it is funded from an operating grant from government or funding comprised of payments of fees made by or on behalf of students), the University will offer the staff member a continuing appointment.

6.7.2.15 Notwithstanding anything in this clause, the University at its discretion may at any time convert a fixed-term appointment to continuing employment.

6.8 CONVERSION OF CASUAL/SESSIONAL EMPLOYMENT

6.8.1 Conversion from Casual to Continuing or Fixed-term Employment – Professional Staff

Eligible casual professional staff members may have a right to apply for conversion to continuing or fixed-term employment and this will be managed in accordance with the University Policy on the Employment of Casual Professional Staff.

6.8.2 Eligibility for Conversion

6.8.2.1 To be eligible for conversion (or to apply for conversion), a casual professional staff member must be employed on a regular and systematic basis in the same or a similar and identically classified position in the same department/school (or equivalent work unit), either:

- (i) over the immediately preceding period of twelve (12) months and in those immediately preceding six (6) months the average weekly hours worked equaled at least 40 per cent of the ordinary weekly hours that would have been worked by an equivalent full-time staff member, or,
- (ii) over the immediately preceding period of at least twenty-four (24) months.

6.8.2.2 The University will not unreasonably refuse to convert an eligible staff member. However, it may refuse an application on reasonable grounds. A staff member whose application for conversion is rejected will be provided with written reasons for the refusal. Reasonable grounds include, but are not limited to:

- (i) the staff member is a student, or has recently been a student, other than where their status as a student is irrelevant to their engagement and the work required;
- (ii) the staff member is a genuine retiree;
- (iii) the staff member is performing work which will either cease to be required or will be performed by a non-casual staff member, within twenty-six (26) weeks (from the date of application);

- (iv) the staff member does not meet the essential requirements of the position;
- (v) it would require a significant adjustment to the staff member's hours of work in order for the staff member to be employed as a full-time staff member or part-time staff member (because the work is ad hoc);
- (vi) there will be a significant change in either or both of the following in the period of 6 months after giving the request:
 - the days on which the staff member's hours of work are required to be performed;
 - the times at which the staff member's hours of work are required to be performed; which cannot be accommodated within the days or times the staff member is available to work during that period.

- 6.8.2.3 A staff member who declines an offer of conversion, or who is refused conversion, may reapply for conversion after 6 months.

6.8.3 Conversion from Casual / Sessional Academic Employment

- 6.8.3.1 The University will create a program to transition work undertaken by casual academics to ongoing academics (the program). The aim of this sub-clause is that academic staff members appointed through the program will primarily perform teaching work that was previously performed by casual staff members.

- 6.8.3.2 Over the life of the Agreement the University will reduce to and maintain a ratio of casual and sessional academic staff FTE to non-casual and sessional academic staff FTE of 30% to 70%. The percentage of sessional to non-sessional staff will be reduced to at least:

- (a) 36% to 64% within 12 months after the agreement commences;
- (b) 34% to 66% within 2 years after the agreement commences; and
- (c) 32% to 68% within 3 years after the agreement commences.

Based on headcount data on 24 June 2022, this would require the University to create and fill at least 85 FTE new ongoing academic positions through the program. If, during the life of this Agreement, the University outsources a significant part of its casual and sessional academic workforce to a separate entity, the resulting reduction in casual and sessional academic staff will not count for the purpose of the agreed ratios in this clause.

- 6.8.3.3 Under the program, the University will distribute positions proportionally across academic work units having regard to:

- (a) the total hours of work performed by casual or sessional academic staff in those work units over the calendar years 2020, 2021 and 2022;
- (b) the anticipated prospective need for the work to be continued; and
- (c) the nature of casual work in the work unit.

- 6.8.3.4 Appointment to positions under the program will be based on competence. Applicants must:

- (a) have been awarded a PhD or have submitted a PhD thesis for examination (other than in circumstances where a PhD is not normally required for appointment); and
- (b) have casual experience totaling at least 2 teaching terms at the University in the previous two years; and
- (c) not have held a continuing position in a university in the previous three years and
- (d) provide verification that they satisfy the criteria in this sub-clause 6.8.3.4 (a) to (c) above.

- 6.8.3.5 Despite clause 6.8.3.4, the University may, at its discretion, accept an application from an applicant who does not satisfy the requirements in clause 6.8.3.4 due to a career interruption or other personal reasons, or who is not a recent PhD graduate and has insufficient experience, if they otherwise satisfy the requirements and are suitably qualified to perform a role created through the program.

- 6.8.3.6 To ensure equitable opportunities for casual and sessional academic staff employed at the University in the preceding 3 years, the University will establish a register of all casual and sessional academic teaching staff employed over that period. The University will annually contact people on the register to allow them to update their contact details, and will update the register annually.
- 6.8.3.7 All roles created through the program will:
- (a) be advertised at first instance to all casual and sessional academic teaching staff employed in the preceding 3 years; and
 - (b) remain open for application for at least 15 business days; and
 - (c) be subject to the University's usual recruitment processes (e.g. regarding selection panels, pre-employment checks, verification of qualifications).
- 6.8.3.8 If there are no appointable applicants following the recruitment process in sub-clause 6.8.3.4 the University may advertise externally to fill the roles created through the program.
- 6.8.3.9 Where no applicant is appointable following external advertising who satisfy criteria of sub-clauses 6.8.3.4 and 6.8.3.5 the University may appoint candidates who otherwise demonstrate they meet the requirements of the roles created through the program.
- 6.8.3.10 Academic appointments under the program:
- (a) will be to continuing positions;
 - (b) may be advertised or made at a fraction less than 1.0 FTE where a full-time position cannot be accommodated, but will be at no less than 0.4 FTE; and
 - (c) where the staff member has a PhD, will be at a minimum of Level A Step 6 of Schedule 1 of the Agreement.
- 6.8.3.11 To assess suitability, a person who is appointed under the program will be subject to a 3-year academic probation period, and subject to the probation provisions in clause 6.10.
- 6.8.3.12 Academic appointments through the program will have a workload allocated in accordance with clause 5.2 (Working Arrangements - Academic Staff).
- 6.8.3.13 All other provisions of the Agreement apply to staff members appointed under this clause 6.8.3 as continuing staff members.
- 6.8.3.14 Each academic position appointed through the program will primarily perform teaching work that was previously performed by casual or sessional staff. Where a continuing academic position is made redundant, academic positions appointed through the program will not perform the teaching work previously performed by that position for a period of 18 months.
- 6.8.3.15 The University will report annually to the ACUSCC on:
- (a) the total number of positions established and appointed through the program in the previous 12 months, the academic work units and disciplines in which they were appointed and their academic career pathway; and
 - (b) the total number of positions appointed through the program, the academic work units and disciplines in which they were appointed and their academic career pathway workload allocations; and the ratio of casual/sessional academic staff FTE to non-casual/sessional staff FTE over the previous 12 months and over the life of the Agreement.

6.9 MINIMUM EMPLOYMENT PERIOD

For the purposes of the Unfair Dismissal Provisions of the Fair Work Act, the Minimum Employment Period that the University may rely upon is six (6) months ending at the earlier of the following times:

- (a) The time when the staff member is given notice of the dismissal;
- (b) Immediately before the dismissal.

6.10 PROBATIONARY EMPLOYMENT

6.10.1 A staff member, other than one who is employed on a sessional or casual basis, may be employed on the requirement that they satisfactorily complete a specified period of probationary employment. The term and conditions which must be met for confirmation of probation will be advised in writing to the staff member in advance of the commencement of employment. The review and assessment of a staff member on probation will be in accordance with the applicable University policy and procedures for Probation.

Notwithstanding that the relevant Member of the Senior Executive may, however, reduce or dispense with a probationary period in the case of a new staff member where this is warranted.

6.10.2 The maximum term of a probationary period for a professional staff member will be six (6) months, and for a continuing academic staff member will be three (3) years notwithstanding that these periods may be shortened.

6.10.3 In the case of fixed-term academic staff for whom the terms of their probationary appointment did not require the normal range of probation conditions for continuing appointment, a further period of up to eighteen (18) months' probation may be required. Other than the provisions of this sub-clause, any second or subsequent fixed-term contract, with the University, will not contain a probationary period.

6.10.4 A probationary staff member's performance will be reviewed as follows:

- (i) A professional staff member will normally have their performance reviewed at the midpoint of their probationary period (normally two (2) – three (3) months) and again prior to the anticipated date of confirmation.
- (ii) An academic staff member employed on a probationary basis who is employed on a fixed-term contract of employment will normally have their performance reviewed at the midpoint of their probationary period and again prior to the anticipated date of confirmation.
- (iii) A continuing academic staff member employed on a probationary basis will normally have their performance reviewed on an annual basis with a final review occurring normally no later than three (3) months prior to the anticipated date of confirmation.

6.10.5 If a review of performance finds that the staff member has not met the terms of their probation and/or the staff member's performance is unsatisfactory, the Vice-Chancellor and President may dismiss a probationary staff member on performance grounds with notice, provided that:

- (i) the staff member is serving a reasonable probationary period, having regard to the nature and circumstances of the employment;
- (ii) the dismissal complies with the University's probation policy and procedures; and,
- (iii) notice of dismissal is given in writing.

6.10.6 As a condition incidental to employment on probation, a staff member must be advised of, and given an opportunity to make response to, any adverse material about the staff member which the University intends to take into account in a decision to terminate the employment upon or before the expiry of the period of probation.

6.10.7 If, at the end of the specified review period (or the final review in the case of a continuing academic staff member) the staff member has not met their probationary criteria and/or the staff member's performance has not improved to the required standard, the supervisor will submit a report to this effect through the Member of the Executive to the relevant Member of the Senior Executive for consideration and, at the same time, provide a copy to the staff member.

6.10.8 Within (10) ten working days of receiving a copy of the report, the staff member must submit to the relevant Member of the Senior Executive a written response to the report. The relevant Member of the Senior Executive will consider the report and the response provided by the staff member and consult with the supervisor and the Chief People Officer (or nominee) as appropriate.

6.10.9 Upon receipt of the report and any written response from the staff member, the relevant Member of the Senior Executive will need to be satisfied that:

- (i) appropriate steps have been taken to bring the unsatisfactory nature of performance to the staff member's attention, including any specific probationary criteria that have not been met;
- (ii) an adequate opportunity to respond was given;
- (iii) any response was taken into account; and,
- (iv) a reasonable opportunity has been afforded to remedy the performance problem and/or otherwise meet the probationary criteria.

6.10.10 The relevant Member of the Senior Executive may then decide to:

- (i) take no further action;
- (ii) refer the matter back to the Member of the Executive or the supervisor to ensure that appropriate steps are taken (e.g. relevant staff development or training); or,
- (iii) recommend to the Vice-Chancellor and President that disciplinary action be taken.

6.10.11 On receipt of the recommendation from the relevant Member of the Senior Executive and having considered the report of the supervisor related to the probationary staff member, and the response from the staff member, the Vice-Chancellor and President may consider taking disciplinary action, as defined in sub-clause 1.3 of this Agreement.

6.10.12 Before taking any action, the Vice-Chancellor and President will provide the probationary staff member with copies of the reports that have given rise to the recommendation. The Vice-Chancellor and President will invite the staff member to respond to the matters raised in those reports and to advise, within five (5) working days, in writing, any matters that the staff member may wish the Vice-Chancellor and President to take into account at the time a decision as to disciplinary action is to be considered. The Vice-Chancellor and President will have regard to any such matters brought to her or his attention by the staff member when deciding whether any disciplinary action should be taken.

6.10.13 If the Vice-Chancellor and President dismisses a probationary staff member, the staff member will be entitled to notice or payment in lieu of notice as follows:

Period of Continuous Service at the end of the day notice is given	Period of Notice
Less than 3 years	At least 2 weeks
3 years but less than 5 years	At least 3 weeks
5 years or over	At least 4 weeks
Over 45 years old and greater than 2 years continuous service	Plus one additional week to the above

6.10.14 The University will advise the probationary staff member of the Vice-Chancellor and President's decision, and of the operative date of any disciplinary action to be taken.

6.10.15 If, following receipt of advice from the Vice-Chancellor and President, a probationary staff member believes that fair and proper procedures have not been followed, the staff member may seek to have the process reviewed by a member of the Panel of Independent Chairs.

6.10.16 The member of the Panel (Reviewer) will review the steps taken during the process of applying this sub-clause in order to establish whether the staff member was afforded procedural fairness throughout that application. The Reviewer will submit a report on the findings of this review, including recommendations, if appropriate, to the Vice-Chancellor and President.

6.10.17 Subject to the outcome of any review by the Reviewer, if formal disciplinary action is to be taken, the Vice-Chancellor and President will advise the staff member in writing of the decision and the date of effect of the decision.

6.10.18 All actions of the Vice-Chancellor and President to discipline a probationary staff member will be final, and not subject to the disputes settling procedures of this Agreement, except that any disputes regarding the process leading to the Vice Chancellor and President's actions and decisions may be dealt with in accordance with the disputes settling procedures of this Agreement.

6.10.19 Nothing in this sub-clause will be construed as excluding the jurisdiction of any external court or tribunal which, but for this sub-clause, would be competent to deal with the matter.

6.11 TRANSFERS

6.11.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the University may transfer a staff member into another position at their current classification level, fraction and duration. The University will consult with the staff member before deciding whether or not to proceed with a directed transfer.

(a) Provided that the staff member will not be required to relocate from one State/Territory to another as a result of the transfer.

(b) Provided that a staff member in Victoria will not be required to transfer from Melbourne to Ballarat (or vice versa) as a result of the transfer.

6.11.2 The University will approve a transfer in circumstances where a staff member requests a transfer in writing to a position or role at the same grade/level and a suitable vacancy (or position) is available.

SECTION 7 DISCIPLINE PROVISIONS, MEDICAL ASSESSMENT AND SEPARATION FROM EMPLOYMENT

7.1 SEPARATION AT THE INITIATIVE OF THE STAFF MEMBER

7.1.1 Separation due to Abandonment of Employment

If a staff member is absent from work for a period of ten (10) days or more without explanation, and they do not make reasonable efforts to inform their nominated supervisor or the next most senior officer of the reason for such absence, the University may deem the staff member to have abandoned their employment with the University. Abandonment of employment will be managed in accordance with the University policy and procedures relating to the Abandonment of Employment.

7.1.2 Resignation or Retirement from the University

7.1.2.1 An academic staff member, other than a casual academic or sessional staff member, is normally required to give the University not less than three (3) months' notice of separation from employment with the University.

7.1.2.2 A professional staff member whose position is classified at HEW Level 8 or above, other than a casual professional staff member, is normally required to give the University not less than four (4) weeks' notice of separation from employment with the University.

7.1.2.3 A professional staff member whose position is classified at HEW Level 1 to 7, other than a casual professional staff member, is normally required to give the University not less than two (2) weeks' notice of separation from employment with the University.

7.1.2.4 A casual academic staff member, a casual professional staff member, and/or a sessional staff member is required to give a minimum of one (1) hours' notice of separation from employment with the University.

7.2 DISCIPLINE PROVISIONS

7.2.1 Action to Address Misconduct or Serious Misconduct Principles

7.2.1.1 The provisions of this clause are a complete code to address possible misconduct or serious misconduct. The provisions do not apply to casual staff or during a staff member's minimum period of employment.

7.2.1.2 The provisions of this clause in no way restrict the University from carrying out investigations relating to the consequences of conduct of a staff member or former staff member when required to do so in the public interest.

7.2.1.3 The University may instigate an investigative process that might give rise to disciplinary action for misconduct or serious misconduct where it appears that a staff member may have committed a breach of the law or a serious breach of a University policy.

7.2.1.4 Nothing in this Agreement prevents a Member of the Executive or Senior Executive, or the Vice-Chancellor and President from referring a question of possible misconduct or serious misconduct to a supervisor for appropriate action or from undertaking an enquiry into a staff member's behaviour.

7.2.1.5 Throughout the proceedings associated with misconduct or serious misconduct, a staff member may choose to be assisted by a person of their choice, provided that person is not a practising barrister or solicitor.

7.2.1.6 Proceedings associated with misconduct or serious misconduct will be conducted in line with natural justice and procedural fairness.

7.2.1.7 The Vice-Chancellor and President may at any time suspend a professional staff member with pay, or an academic staff member with or without pay, if the Vice-Chancellor and President is of the view that the alleged conduct amounts to conduct of a kind envisaged in Regulation 1.07 of the Fair Work Act Regulations 2009, so that it would be unreasonable to continue the staff member's attendance at work pending further investigation.

7.2.1.8 The management of misconduct/serious misconduct will be in accordance with the University Misconduct and Serious Misconduct Policy and Procedures.

7.2.2 Misconduct and Serious Misconduct

7.2.2.1 If an allegation of misconduct or serious misconduct (as defined in clause 1.3) is made, the staff member will be:

- a) advised in writing of the alleged misconduct or serious misconduct, including details of the allegations and whether they are considered to be serious misconduct; and
- b) given a reasonable opportunity to be heard and/or to make written submissions, within 10 working days, in relation to the allegations.

7.2.2.2 If the staff member admits to the allegations, and if appropriate in the University's view, the University may give the staff member a reasonable opportunity to improve their conduct, otherwise the matter will be considered by the Vice-Chancellor and President under clause 7.2.4.

7.2.3 Suspension and additional allegations

7.2.3.1 Where an allegation of serious misconduct has been made against a staff member, the Vice-Chancellor and President, may, at any stage during the procedures under this clause, suspend a professional staff member with pay, or an academic staff member with or without pay, until the conclusion of the matter provided that:

- (i) with the approval of the Chief People Officer, the staff member may draw on any accrued entitlement to recreation leave or long service leave, for the duration of the suspension without pay;
- (ii) the Chief People Officer may at any time direct that salary be paid in part or in full, on the grounds of hardship for the period of suspension or a part period;
- (iii) the Vice-Chancellor and President, may at any time reconsider the issue of the suspension of the staff member.

7.2.3.2 While suspended, the staff member will be excluded from the University or any identified parts of the University, but will be permitted reasonable access to the University including electronic records to prepare their case and to collect personal property.

7.2.3.3 If at any stage during the procedures under this clause, it is found that the allegation(s) should be amended or new allegations added, or the allegation(s) contain additional elements which amount to serious misconduct, the staff member must be advised of this in writing and be given a further reasonable opportunity to be heard and to make written submissions prior to any further steps being taken by the University.

7.2.4 Decision

7.2.4.1 The Vice-Chancellor and President will consider the allegation(s) and the staff member's response.

7.2.4.2 The Vice-Chancellor and President may seek additional information prior to making their decision if it is considered necessary.

7.2.4.3 The Vice-Chancellor and President may determine that allegation(s) of serious misconduct amount only to misconduct.

- 7.2.4.4 The Vice-Chancellor and President will advise the staff member in writing of their decision as to whether there was misconduct and or/ serious misconduct. If there was misconduct and/or serious misconduct, the Vice-Chancellor and President will notify the staff member of their decision, any disciplinary action and of the operative date of that disciplinary action.
- 7.2.4.5 The staff member's employment may be terminated without notice (or payment in lieu) if they have engaged in serious misconduct. If the Vice-Chancellor's decision is to terminate for serious misconduct without notice, the decision will take effect at the end of ten (10) working days after notification under clause 7.2.4.4, or if the staff member seeks a review in accordance with clause 7.2.5 and the original decision is confirmed under clause 7.2.7.1 will take effect at that time.
- 7.2.4.6 If the Vice-Chancellor and President determines that no disciplinary action will be taken and the staff member has been suspended under clause 7.2.3.1, the staff member will be reinstated at no loss of salary of conditions.
- 7.2.4.7 Except where the staff member seeks a review in accordance with clause 7.2.5 of a decision to terminate or demote, the Vice-Chancellor and President's decision under clause 7.2.4.4 is final, subject to the jurisdiction of any court or tribunal which, but for this clause, would have jurisdiction to deal with the matter.

7.2.5 Review of Decision – Termination of Employment or Demotion

- 7.2.5.1 If a decision made under 7.2.4.4 is a decision to terminate the employment of a staff member or to demote, a staff member may seek review of the decision of the Vice-Chancellor and President within ten (10) working days of the staff member receiving notice of the decision.

In order to request a review, a staff member must provide the Chief People Officer, with the following materials at the time the request is lodged:

- (i) the basis for requesting the review;
- (ii) any written submissions supporting the request for review;
- (iii) any documentary evidence that the staff member relies on in respect of (i) and (ii).

7.2.6 Independent Review

- 7.2.6.1 If the staff member seeks a review in accordance with clause 7.2.5 the Chief People Officer will engage an Independent Reviewer within ten (10) working days and provide the reviewer with the request for review and materials. The Independent Reviewer is to be agreed between the University and the NTEU or CPSU NSW as appropriate.
- 7.2.6.2 The University will provide the Independent Reviewer with its submissions and any supporting materials within ten (10) working days of the request for review.
- 7.2.6.3 The Independent Reviewer will report their findings and recommendations to the staff member and the Vice-Chancellor and President or Chief People Officer, outlining:
 - a) whether there is, overall, sufficient evidence to support a finding of misconduct/serious misconduct (in the case of review of decisions under clause 7.2.5);
 - b) whether there has been a substantial flaw in following the procedures of this clause; and
 - c) make a recommendation(s) (if any) about disciplinary action in light of the matters outlined in (a) and (b).
- 7.2.6.4 The Independent Reviewer will consider material provided in accordance with clause 7.2.6.2. The Independent Reviewer may seek additional information if the Independent Reviewer considers that this is necessary.
- 7.2.6.5 The Independent Reviewer will provide their report within ten (10) working days of receiving the University's submissions to the Vice-Chancellor and President or Chief People Officer of the matters in the clause.

7.2.6.6 The Chief People Officer, will not unreasonably refuse a request from the Independent Reviewer for an extension of time of up to ten (10) working days.

7.2.7 Further consideration of termination or demotion decision

7.2.7.1 The Vice-Chancellor and President having considered the Independent Reviewer's report, may confirm the original decision or may reconsider the preliminary decision and determine what, if any, disciplinary action should be taken. The Vice-Chancellor and President may seek additional information if the Vice-Chancellor and President considers that this is necessary.

7.2.7.2 The Vice-Chancellor and President will then advise the staff member's supervisor or relevant member of the Executive and the staff member in writing of the decision.

7.2.7.3 Where the original decision was to terminate the staff member's employment and this is confirmed, the notice period (if any) (or payment in lieu) will then apply from the written notification in clause 7.2.7.2.

7.2.7.4 The decision of the Vice-Chancellor and President will be final, subject to the jurisdiction of any court of tribunal which, but for this clause, would have jurisdiction to deal with the matter.

7.2.8 Notice Periods in Relation to Serious Misconduct

7.2.8.1 Where, in accordance with provisions of this clause, the Vice-Chancellor and President has confirmed a decision to terminate the employment of a staff member, notice or payment in lieu will be as provided in accordance with this clause. The staff member will receive the minimum period of notice, or payment in lieu of notice, of their last day of employment as outlined below:

Period of Continuous Service at the end of the day notice is given	Period of Notice
less than 3 years	At least 2 weeks
3 years but less than 5 years	At least 3 weeks
5 years or over	At least 4 weeks
Over 45 years old and greater than 2 years continuous service	Plus one additional week to the above

7.2.8.2 Payment instead of notice will be made if the University does not require the person to work out the notice period. Where the staff member is only required to work part of the notice period, the University will pay out the remainder of the notice period.

7.2.8.3 Any payments in lieu of notice will be based on the staff member's substantive salary at the date of cessation of employment.

7.3 MEDICAL ASSESSMENT

7.3.1 General Principles

7.3.1.1 The provisions in this clause do not apply to casual or sessional staff members or to continuing or fixed-term staff contract members during their minimum period of employment.

7.3.1.2 In accordance with the University's general duty of care to provide a safe working environment, where the University may have a doubt about a staff member's wellbeing, it is appropriate for the University to seek information about a staff member's health.

7.3.1.3 Separation from employment for medical reasons will be managed in accordance with the University policy and procedures relating to Separation from Employment for Medical Reasons.

7.3.1.4 A staff member may initiate their separation from employment on medical grounds by providing notice of their resignation in accordance with the requirements of this clause.

7.3.1.5 A staff member may apply to their superannuation fund for ill-health retirement benefits or for temporary disability benefits, however described by the particular fund.

7.3.2 Assessment May Be Required

7.3.2.1 Where the University believes there is reasonable concern regarding a staff member's capacity to perform the inherent requirements of their position, the staff member may be required to undergo a medical and/or psychological assessment, the outcome of which may lead to medical separation due to medical reasons. The University will choose a registered medical practitioner or specialist to conduct the assessment at the expense of the University. The University will normally provide the staff member with written notice of not less than four (4) weeks, except in exceptional circumstances, that the assessment is required.

7.3.2.2 If, within this notice period the staff member elects to apply to their superannuation fund for ill-health retirement (or equivalent) or temporary disability benefit and, they provide the University with evidence of the application and of their cooperation with the superannuation fund in the processing of the application, the requirement for a medical examination will be deferred. In this case, subject to the provisions of this clause, the University will take no further action until such time as the superannuation fund has reached a decision on the application.

7.3.2.3 In the event the superannuation fund determines that the staff member does have the capacity to perform the inherent requirements and duties of their position, in line with the University's duty of care obligations, the University will require the staff member to undergo the deferred medical examination as soon as possible, or give the staff member a further notice under sub-clause 7.3.2.1.

7.3.2.4 A staff member who is granted an ill health retirement benefit (or equivalent) by their superannuation fund (e.g. a Permanent Incapacity Benefit from UniSuper) will be deemed to have separated from employment with the University by taking medical retirement at their initiative.

7.3.2.5 The staff member's date of medical retirement will take effect from either:

- (i) the date that the superannuation fund advises the University of its decision to grant ill health benefits to the staff member,
or,
- (ii) the date of effect advised to the University by the superannuation fund, whichever advice is received first by the University.

7.3.2.6 Where an assessment is conducted in accordance with this clause, the medical practitioner responsible for the assessment will be asked to advise whether the staff member is or will be able to perform the inherent requirements of the position, and whether the staff member will be able to resume work and perform those requirements within a reasonable time, being not less than twelve (12) months. A copy of the report will be made available to the University.

7.3.2.7 If the medical practitioner undertaking the assessment requires additional information in order to complete the assessment, including but not limited to:

- (i) consideration of the staff member's medical records,
- (ii) discussion with the staff member's treating medical practitioner and/or treating specialist, and/or
- (iii) a separate examination/assessment by a second independent practitioner, the staff member is required to cooperate with the request for additional information and the University will meet the costs of any additional appointments.

- 7.3.2.8 The University will supply a copy of the report to the staff member, together with written advice that a staff member may elect to make an application to refer the report to a panel of three (3) medical practitioners for independent medical assessment within fourteen (14) days of the medical report being supplied to the staff member.
- 7.3.2.9 Notwithstanding any other provision of this clause, where a staff member has been continually absent from employment on account of a medical and/or psychological condition, including, but not limited to, one which has been the subject of an assessment under this Agreement; and the absence has been for a period of not less than twelve (12) months, the University may terminate the staff member's employment by providing six (6) months' notice, or notice equal to the period before the staff member's fixed-term contract of employment expires in accordance with its terms, whichever is the lesser amount.
- 7.3.2.10 The University may construe failure by a staff member to undergo a medical/psychological assessment as prima facie evidence that a medical examination would have found the staff member unable to perform the inherent requirements of their position, and unlikely to be able to resume them within twelve (12) months.
- 7.3.2.11 In such a case, the University may provide six (6) months' notice of separation due to medical reasons, or notice equal to the period before the staff member's contract of employment expires in accordance with its terms, whichever is the lesser amount. However, such a failure by a staff member in these circumstances will not constitute misconduct nor lead to any greater penalty or loss of entitlements than would have resulted from an adverse medical report.

7.4 SUMMARY DISMISSAL – PROFESSIONAL STAFF

Nothing in this Agreement will limit the right of the University to dismiss a professional staff member whose misconduct or behaviour is regarded by the University as so grave as to warrant summary dismissal. In such circumstances, the University will exercise that right, following any investigation that is reasonable in the circumstances and observing its policy and procedures for Summary Dismissal. For the purposes of this clause, conduct that is so grave as to warrant summary dismissal will be that specified in Regulation 1.07 of the Act (or its successor).

SECTION 8 CONSULTATION AND CHANGE MANAGEMENT AT ACU

8.1 PRINCIPLES

- 8.1.1 The University and its staff will pursue ongoing improvements in the quality of University programs and support services, and in support of the University's strategic objectives. The University and staff recognise that change will occur as the University evolves over time and as circumstances require. Many changes that take place in the workplace can be relatively minor and, as a consequence, will be addressed at the workplace level through direct local discussion and consultation with individual staff and/or the work group.
- 8.1.2 The University highly values its staff and is committed to providing security of employment and, wherever possible, to retaining the services of, and offering ongoing opportunities to staff members.

8.2 JOB SECURITY

- 8.2.1 The University will explore all available options to mitigate the impact of any reduction in the size of the University's workforce. Wherever reasonably practicable, reductions in the size of the University's workforce will occur through natural attrition and voluntary measures such as, voluntary redundancy, redeployment, relocation, training or retraining before consideration is given to involuntary retrenchment. Therefore, involuntary retrenchment will be used as a last resort.
- 8.2.2 Subject to any exceptional circumstances that may arise (including substantial adverse changes in Government funding or major negative economic disruption), a staff member who has been redeployed during the nominal life of the Agreement as an outcome of a major change process will not have their employment ended as a result of involuntary retrenchment in a subsequent major change process within the nominal life of the Agreement.
- 8.2.3 Staff members may choose to be assisted throughout the discussions in these processes by a Staff Representative.

8.3 CHANGES TO ROSTERS OR HOURS OF WORK

Where the University has made a decision (including a decision in principle) to change the staff member's regular roster or ordinary hours of work the University will notify and consult with the staff member/s affected and their representatives (if any) about the change. The University will:

- (i) Provide to the staff member information about the proposed change;
- (ii) Invite the affected staff member/s and their representatives (if any) to provide their views about the impact of the proposed change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities); and
- (iii) Give consideration to any views about the impact of the proposed change provided by the staff member/s (or their representatives if any).

8.4 MAJOR CHANGE

- 8.4.1 Where the University has made a decision (including a decision in principle) to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects (as defined in sub clause 1.3) on staff, the University will notify and consult with the staff members who may be affected by the proposed changes, their staff representatives and the Unions. A decision to replace staff with contractors or third party providers (that is, to outsource jobs) is a major change for the purposes of this clause.

- 8.4.2 The University will consult directly affected staff informally before the development of a Change Management Plan. Directly affected staff will be informed that the University is contemplating major change in the area and ask staff their views about how proposed expected outcomes might be achieved.
- 8.4.3 The University will provide relevant information to the affected staff as part of the consultation process. A draft Change Management Plan will be distributed to affected staff. The draft Plan will include information about:
- (a) The proposed change to occur;
 - (b) The rationale for the change and the expected outcomes;
 - (c) The anticipated effects on staff, including potential benefits or possible adverse effects, if any;
 - (d) How changed work will be performed and distributed between positions (including proposed classifications and job titles) and staff in the future including the anticipated effects on staff in other work units;
 - (e) Where redundancies are proposed, the work that will no longer be required to be performed by anyone, and the work that will continue to be performed by other staff members;
 - (f) Suggestions for avoiding or mitigating any potentially adverse effects on staff;
 - (g) Suggestions for avoiding or mitigating any potentially adverse effects on staff;
 - (h) The anticipated timeframe for consultation and implementation;
 - (i) The impact on the gender profile of the work unit;
 - (j) Any other relevant information.
- 8.4.4 The University will seek feedback from affected staff and will consider any input from the University workplace community, staff representatives and the Unions when considering change plans; including whether to proceed with the proposed change, (either in its original or a revised form). The University will provide a response as part of the Final Change Plan.
- 8.4.5 The University will provide a copy of the Final Change Plan to staff, staff representatives and the Unions.
- 8.4.6 Once the Final Change Plan is approved by the Vice-Chancellor and President, the University may declare a staff member's position to be redundant because the University decides that it no longer wishes the job/duties that the staff member has been doing to be done by anyone at that campus or location, and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour.
- 8.4.7 The University will conduct a post-implementation review appropriate to the change, including of the effectiveness of consultation under clause 8.4.2 and whether the expected outcomes for the change were achieved, within 6 to 12 months after the Final Change Plan implementation. Staff who were directly affected by the change will have the opportunity to participate in the post-implementation review. The review findings and staff feedback will be discussed at an ACU Staff Consultative Committee meeting.

8.5 NOTICE OF REDUNDANCY

- 8.5.1 Following the consultation process, the University will formally notify (in writing) the staff member who is affected, that their position has been made redundant and the date of the commencement of the Notice period. This formal notice will outline the reason(s) for redundancy.
- 8.5.2 Retrenchment occurs when a staff member's employment is terminated because of redundancy.
- 8.5.3 The provisions in this Agreement relating to redundancy and retrenchment do not apply to casual or sessional staff members or to staff members during their minimum period of employment within the meaning of the Act.

8.6 NOTICE PERIOD

Completed years of service at the end of the day when notice is given	Period of Notice
Professional Staff less than or equal to 5 years of service	3 weeks per year of service
Professional Staff more than 5 years of service	26 weeks
Academic Staff	26 weeks

8.7 REDEPLOYMENT

8.7.1 Wherever possible, as a first step to avoid the need for retrenchment following notification of redundancy, the University will redeploy or relocate an affected staff member to a suitable position, subject to the provisions of this Agreement. A staff member will not unreasonably decline to accept redeployment, relocation, training or retraining, save that the University and an affected staff member may agree that redeployment is not suitable.

8.7.2 In redeploying a staff member to a suitable vacancy, the University will consult with the staff member and will have regard to the needs of the University and any or all of that staff member's:

- (a) skills and knowledge;
- (b) substantive classification;
- (c) salary level;
- (d) retraining requirements;
- (e) physical and/or health requirements;
- (f) flexible working arrangements;
- (g) career trajectory and aspirations;
- (h) present residential location; and
- (i) capacity to move to another campus.

The University will also invite the staff member and their representatives to consult on other measures to mitigate the adverse effects of retrenchment.

8.7.3 Consistent with the University's commitment to security of employment. The University will make all reasonable efforts to redeploy, transfer or relocate the staff member to a suitable vacancy during the period of notice. Where a staff member could successfully perform a role in a vacant position within a reasonable timeframe and with suitable training and support, the University will redeploy that staff member into that position.

8.7.4 When an affected professional staff member whose substantive position is HEW 7 or above is to be redeployed to a position classified at a lower level and/or fraction than the position made redundant by the University, the staff member will continue to be paid the salary they would have received had the position not been made redundant for twelve (12) months from the date of redeployment, after which the staff member will receive the salary applicable to the classification and fraction of the position into which the staff member has been redeployed. Where this occurs the staff member will be entitled to payment at the top increment of the classification.

8.7.5 When an affected professional staff member whose substantive position is HEW 6 or below is to be redeployed to a position classified at a lower level and/or fraction than the position made redundant by the University, the staff member will continue to be paid the salary they would have received had the position not been made redundant for eighteen (18) months from the date of redeployment, after which the staff member will receive the salary applicable to the classification and fraction of the position into which the staff member has been redeployed. Where this occurs the staff member will be entitled to payment at the top increment of the classification.

- 8.7.6 Where the University is unable to redeploy, transfer or relocate the staff member to a suitable position during the redeployment period, the University will confirm in writing that the staff member's employment will be terminated due to reasons of redundancy and the date of termination. The University will confirm the balance of the notice period and severance payable.

8.8 CALCULATION OF SEVERANCE PAYMENTS

19 or more	52.18	52.18

- 8.8.1 Severance payments will be calculated on the staff member's substantive salary as at the date of retrenchment.
- 8.8.2 A fixed-term staff member who is retrenched prior to the expiry of their contract of employment in accordance with its terms, is entitled to the same notice period as a continuing staff member and will be paid a sum equal to their salary for the balance of the term of the contract or receive six (6) months' salary, whichever is greater.
- 8.8.3 Staff members who are within two (2) years of their anticipated retirement date for superannuation purposes may apply to take Voluntary Retirement as per clause 8.9.
- 8.8.4 Subject to clause 8.7.2, if the University offers acceptable alternative employment for a staff member who is otherwise entitled to severance payment, then that staff member is not entitled to severance payment.

8.8.5 Capping of Notice and Severance Payments

The maximum amount of monies that a continuing staff member may receive from redundancy severance payments and any payment in lieu of part or full notice as may be determined by the University, is capped at seventy-eight (78) weeks' salary. The maximum amount of monies that a fixed-term staff member may receive from retrenchment is set out at 8.8.2.

8.9 VOLUNTARY RETIREMENT

A staff member who is within two (2) years of the eligible retirement date prescribed by their superannuation fund and who is provided with notice of redundancy in accordance with sub-clause 8.4.6 may apply for voluntary early retirement. If the University approves an application from a staff member for voluntary early retirement, the benefit payable to a staff member will be based on the following:

- (i) twelve (12) weeks' salary conditional upon cessation of employment no later than the end of the semester in which the notice under sub-clause 8.4.6 has been given to the staff member, or another date mutually agreed with the University; plus
- (ii) two (2) weeks' salary for each completed year of service,
- (iii) capped at seventy-eight (78) weeks' salary.
